FOREWORD

The Staff wishes to express its appreciation for the cooperation of all those who have made the annual possible in this year of hardship. We sincerely hope that this book will bring as much pleasure to you who read it as it has brought to us who have worked on it.

THE KRABBA

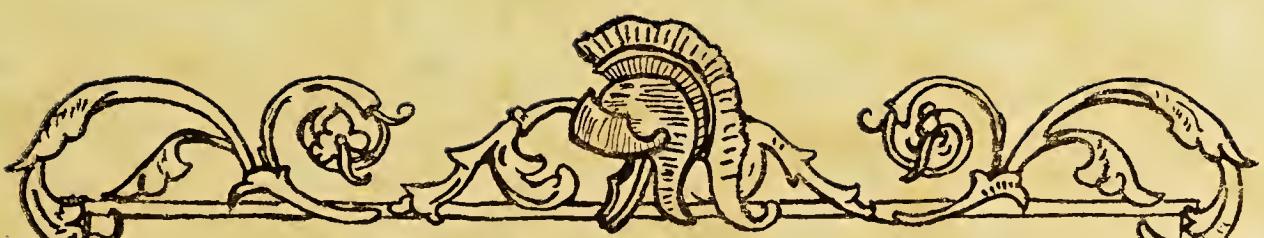

MRS. HENNING A. ROUNTREE

Dedication

To the memory of one who always took the greatest interest in all our activities and who kept the welfare of our school at heart, we gratefully dedicate this annual.

THE KRABBA

ELIZABETH FULLER ALLEN
"Lib"

French Club, '31; Latin Club, '31; French Club, '32; Junior Chorus, '32.

Elizabeth is liked by the whole student body (and especially by a certain member of the Junior Class). She has a rather quiet disposition, but is not lacking in friends and always has a ready smile for everyone. "Lib" is also one of our most studious members.

RAYMOND ANDREWS
"Ray"

Commercial Club, '32; Spanish Club, '32; Athletic Association, '31, '32.

Raymond is about the best commercial student in school. If his curly hair and winning smile don't entice some business woman, then there is no chance for the rest of us.

JULIA BADER

Latin Club, '31, '32, '33; French Club, '32, '33; Journalism Club, '32; Athletic Association, '31; Krabba Staff, '33; Junior Red Cross, '31; Priestley Chemistry Club, '33.

Julia is a quiet girl, and is she smart! Well I'll say she is! With her common sense and brains Julia will be a tremendous success. We hope her artistic ability will carry her into fame.

RICHARD BENTZEL

Athletic Association, '29, '33; Band, '30, '31, '32; Orchestra, '31, '32; French Club, '31; Priestley Chemistry Club, '32.

"Benzine" is well known for his mathematical ability. His hard work on his lessons has won for him a place among the celebrities. Being a modest chap, his super abundance of intelligence has not gone to his head.

ELLIOTT BLOXOM

Athletic Association, '29, '30, '31; Pep Club, '32.

Elliott who is known to his friends as "Reds" is a very nice boy. He is full of fun and is all the time kidding some one. He never looks worried and is always smiling.

HELEN MARIE BONA

Commercial Club, '31, '32, '33; Spanish Club, '31; Secretary Spanish Club, '32; Krabba Staff, '33; Junior Chorus, '32; Athletic Association, '32, '33; Orchestra, '29, '30, '31.

If you want an efficient stenographer, call on Helen. She can turn out more work in less time than anyone we know of. Those big brown eyes will break somebody's heart some day.

THE KRABBA

MARGUERITE GERTRUDE BRADFORD

President of Freshman Class, '30; Glee Club, '30; French Club, '32; D. D. K., '31, '32, '33; Treasurer, '32, '33; Junior Chorus, '32; Dramatic Club, '32, '33; Secretary, '33; May Court, '31; Athletic Association, '30, '31; Krabba Staff Minister, '32.

Have you met her? No? Well you just don't know what you're missing. But it wouldn't do you much good for that far away look in her eyes tells of a certain blond in the Philippines. There's no use wishing her luck, for success is bound to come to a girl with her personality.

VIRGINIA BROWNLEY

"Lightnin'"

Commercial Club, '31, '32, '33.

If you haven't met Virginia you've missed the treat of your life. Some say she is dignified, but her friends do not find her so. She also tried to leave with us the impression that she is a man hater.

MARY BURDICK

Secretary of Freshman Class, '28; Athletic Association, '29, '30, '31; Athletic Council, '32, '33; Secretary Athletic Council, '32; Treasurer Athletic Council, '32; Basketball Team, '28, '29, '30, '31, '32; Captain Basketball Team, '32; Commercial Club, '31, '32; Secretary Commercial Club, '32; Spanish Club, '31, '32; Junior Chorus, '31; Junior Red Cross, '32, '33; President Red Cross, '32.

Mary is a very athletic little blonde, and is she attractive! None of our boys has a chance with Mary, though, for she wears a great big college pin. Here's to you, Mary!

AVA CHARLES BURKE

Basketball Squad, '30, '31, '32, '33; Athletic Association, '30, '31; Monogram Club, '32, '33; Glee Club, '30, '31; Operetta, '30; Pep Club, '32; May Court, '30, '31, '32; Latin Club, '30, '31, '32; Krabba Staff, '31; Junior Chorus, '32.

Ava is an all round favorite in school. She is one of the star dancers of Hampton High. In her flower garden she pays special attention to her sweet Williams.

IDA CARMEL

Athletic Association, '30, '31; Junior Chorus, '31; Commercial Club, '31, '32, '33.

Ida comes to us from that well known "city" of Phoebus. She is always jolly and in a good humor, and has gained many friends among the student body.

MELVIN M. CARMEL

"Ike"

French Club, '32; Football, '32; Track, '31, '32.

Melvin is our big football guard. He is learning to box, and is also proving us his ability as a saxophonist. This lucky combination will surely aid him in his future work.

THE KRABBA

JAMES LAFAYETTE CARMINES

"Fay"

President Sophomore Class, '31; Business Manager Krabba, '31; Business Manager Pioneer, '32, '33; Athletic Association, '30, '31, '32, '33; President M. B. Club, '33; Latin Club, '32, '33; Football, '30, '31; Dramatic Club, '32, '33; Assistant Manager Baseball, '30.

A clear business head, combined with executive ability, should give Fay an important place in life. His capable management of the business affairs of school organizations proves that his place in the business world is assured.

VIRGINIA CATHELL

Latin Club, '31; Junior Red Cross, '31, '32; Spanish Club, '32; Commercial Club, '32, '33; Journalism Club, '32.

Virginia has proved to us and to everyone she meets that a cheerful disposition and sunny smile can get one very far in this world.

ADELLE CHANDLER

French Club, '32; D. D. K., '32, '33; Garrick Dramatic Club, '32, '33; Cheer Leader, '32; Krabba Staff, '33; "The Whole Town's Talking", '32; "Thank You, Doctor", '33.

Here's to Adelle of dancing fame who, too, in dramatics has won a name. She's a blonde, who is winsome, pretty, and neat, and her smile—well that's hard to beat.

RICHARD CLOKE

French Club, '32; M. B. Club, '32, '33; Garrick Dramatic Club, '32, '33; "The Thirteenth Day", "Highness", Assistant Business Manager of Pioneer, '32, '33.

Dick came to Hampton in his third year and at once became deservedly popular. He has proved to be an exceptionally good actor and has won admiration from boys as well as girls.

DOROTHY COLVIN

"Dot"

Operetta, '31; S. S. S., '33; Pep Club, '33; Glee Club, '31; Krabba Staff, '32; Journalism Club, '32; Junior Chorus, '32.

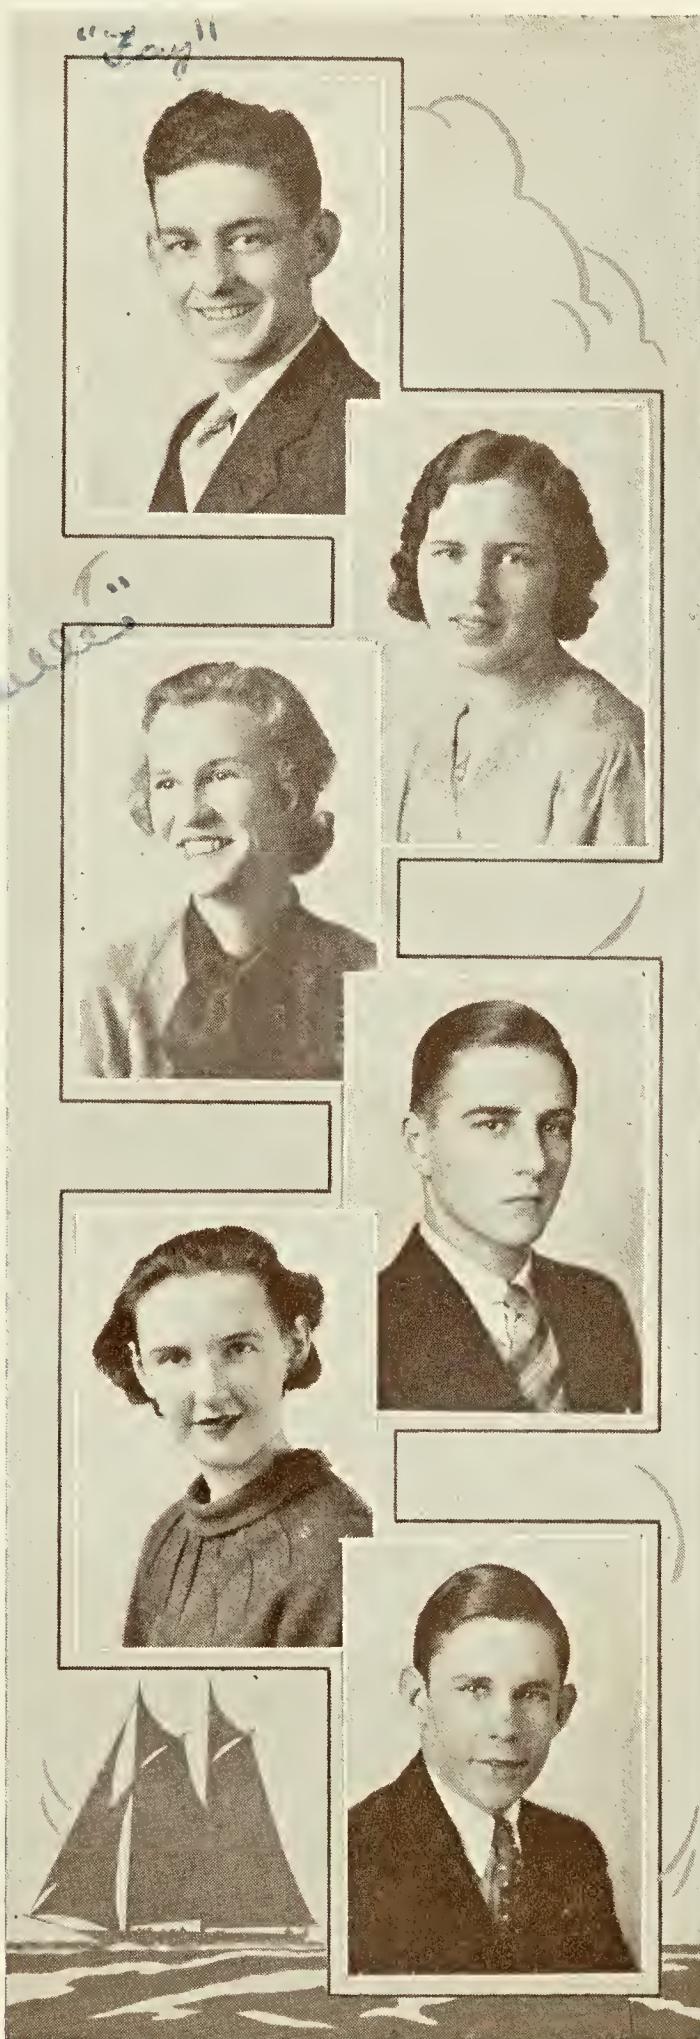

Dot is the "Vachel Lindsey" of the Senior Class. She is on the road to great heights in the journalistic world.

A. B. CONNER

Football, '29, '30, '31, '32; Basketball, '29, '30, '31, '32; Baseball, '29, '30, '31; Track, '32; Golf, '32, '33; French Club, '31, '32; Latin Club, '30, '31; Freshman Play, "Quack, Quack", Athletic Association.

A. B. takes all youse guys and youse gals for a nice, long sleigh ride in golf, basketball, football, and 4B French. He is an all-round laddie and seems to be gifted in all sports. All in all, he is a great boy.

P. S. He holds the golf course record in Hampton against all comers.

THE KRAIBBA

HELEN COONEY

Commercial Club, '32, '33; Spanish Club, '33;
Junior Red Cross Committee.

Helea has blue eyes. In shorthand class those eyes are dreaming about a certain boy with black curly hair who is in the next room. Oh, wouldn't she like to take French? You bet!

HELEN COOPER

Athletic Association, '30, '31, '32; Junior Chorus, '31; Commercial Club, '31, '32; Spanish Club, '31, '32.

Helen is a quiet member of the Senior Class, who comes from Phoebus. She is a hard worker, and will be sure to make a success in life.

BRIDIE MAY COX

Athletic Association, '30, '31, '32; Latin Club, '31; French Club, '32, '33; Junior Chorus, '32.

Hampton Hi hates to lose students like Bridie May. She has a quiet, sweet disposition and a smile that wins a host of friends.

DEANE CRAWFORD

Athletic Association, '30, '31; Athletic Council, '32; Basketball Manager, '32; Commercial Club, '31, '33; Vice-Pres. Commercial Club, '32; Spanish Club, '32; Junior Chorus, '31.

Are you looking for a real girl, one in whom are delightfully combined all the qualities of goodness? Then, here is Deane! Good fortune has sent her to prove to us that even in youth there are still sturdy and admirable personalities. Do you blame any of us for loving her?

ELEANOR CRANDOL

French Club.

If there's a boy in school that Eleanor couldn't like it must be the writer, and the reason for that is the fact that she doesn't like to be talked about. Her jokes keep up the school spirit.

ELEANOR CROSS

Krabba Minstrel; D. D. K., '31, '32, '33; Senior Play, '33; Cheer Leader, '31, '32, '33; Basketball, '31; Operetta, '30; Commercial Club, '31, '32; Spanish Club, '30; Athletic Association, '30.

Eleanor used to be the campus sweetheart. Now they say she's about married. Girls are like that! We think it will take more than that to make us forget her.

THE KRABBA

JESSIE CROSS

"Scottie"

Latin Club, '32, '33; Spanish Club, '32; Junior Chorus, '32; Glee Club, '33; Operetta, '33; Senior Play, '33; Priestley Chemistry Club, '33.

Jessie is our friend who hails from Scotland. She is jolly and friendly. Scottie is a good student and is liked by her teachers and friends.

JANET CUNNINGHAM

Athletic Association, '31, '32, '33; Latin Club, '31; French Club, '32, '33; Junior Chorus, '32.

Janet is very popular, has a sweet disposition, and certainly can dance. She is intelligent and even studies once in a while, when she's not in the company of _____?

MINNIE AUGUSTA CUNNINGHAM

"Little Peanuts"

Minnie has the proverbial heart the size of a whale. She is a "whiz" of a tennis player and she really can swim. She'll surely progress in future life as she always has through school.

HENRY McALLISTER CURTIS

"Mac"

Pres. Garrick Dramatic Club, '33; Sec. Garrick Dramatic Club, '32; "The Thirteenth Day", '32; "Highness", '33; "Long Distance", '32; "The Millionaire", '33; "Thank You, Doctor", '33; Football Varsity, '30, '31, '32, '33; Basketball Varsity, '29, '30, '31, '32; Track Varsity, '29, '30, '31, '32; Monogram Club, '29, '30; Athletic Association, '29, '30; Athletic Council, '30, '31; Captain basketball, '31; Captain Track Squad, '30.

We think the above record will tell you all you need to know about Mac.

MARGARET DOANE

"Peggy"

Commercial Club, '32, '33; Junior Chorus, '32.

Peggy is quiet, studious, and always greets you with a cheery smile. She has an answer ready for any question that may arise. She has gone through her classes in fine style. Everyone likes Peggy.

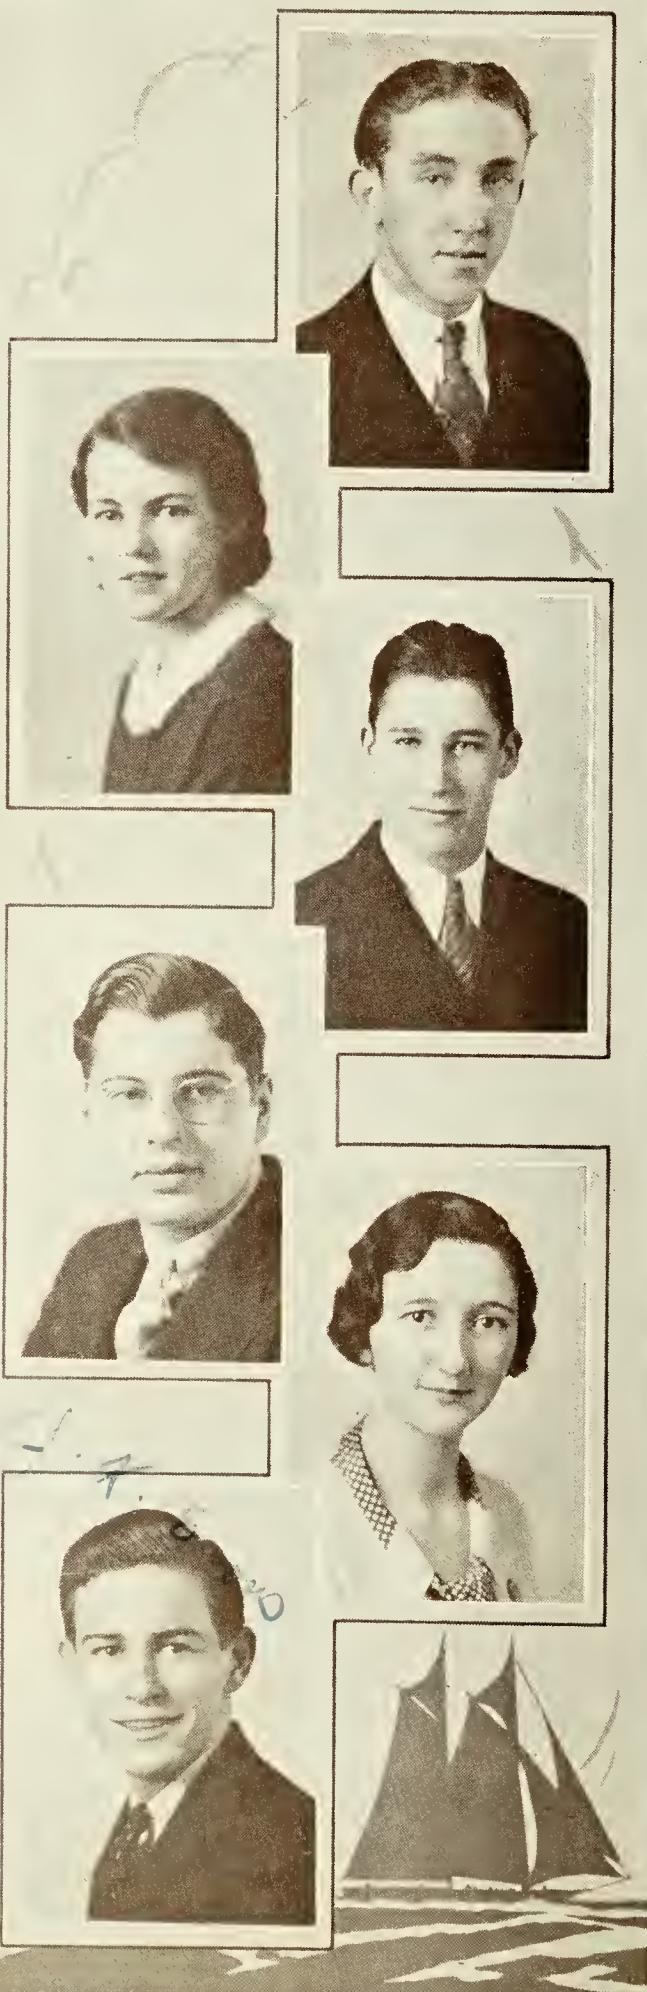

SUZANNE DOANE

Treasurer of Latin Club, '32; Latin Club, '32, '33; President of Latin Club, '33; Chemistry Club, '32, '33; Secretary of Chemistry Club, '33; French Club, '32, '33; Junior Chorus, '32; Senior Play, '33.

Smiling Susie is a very talkative student, but manages to get by with excellent grades. She is a loyal supporter of H. H. S., but is for some reason interested in N. N. H. S.

THE KRABBA

WILLIAM EDWARDS

William has proved to be a good student, and has shown his ability to play the piano. We hope that he will be a second Paderewski.

CHARLOTTE ELLIOTT

Athletic Association, '30, '31, '32, '33; French Club, '32, '33; Junior Chorus, '32; Pep Club, '32.

If you want a true and honest friend, just look for Charlotte. She has a lovely disposition and never gets angry. She can keep a secret, too,—that means a lot!

JUDSON ELLIS

Football, '32; Basketball, '31, '33; Athletic Association, '31, '32, '33; Track, '33.

Whenever old H. H. S. is on the field, Judson is always there, either on the team or backing it up with lusty cheering. He's of a happy-go-lucky disposition, always giggling and—well you just can't make him mad. We feel sure he will carry away with him happy memories of the days spent here with us.

MARTEL EPSTEIN

Athletic Association, '32, '33; French Club, '32, '33; Volley Ball Team, '31.

Martel ranks with the big bluffers of Hampton High School. He is one of our biggest women haters. His only ambition is to go to college. He is a very studious boy and is on the up and up with his teachers.

ELSIE EVANS

Commercial Club, '32, '33; Secretary Commercial Club, '33.

Elsie came to us two years ago from England. Although she has not been with us long, there are a very few people that do not know her. She always has that winning smile with which to greet us. We will surely miss it.

NORWOOD EVANS

Athletic Council, '31; Manager of Baseball, '31; M. B. Club, '33; Pioneer Staff, '32; Krabba Staff, '33; Athletic Association, '30, '31; Monogram Club, '30.

Voted almost unanimously the most attractive boy in school, Norwood fulfills many other deserving roles in the school's activities. He has a likeable smile for anyone or anything and whenever he is hailed (which happens 99,000 times each day) he is completely surrounded by women. The school's loss is the world's gain.

THE KRABBA

FRED FRASCH

Priestley Chemistry Club, '32; Vice-President of Latin Club, '32; Cheer Leader, '32.

Freddie came here from John Harris High School of Harrisburg, Pa., and he brought plenty of pep and school spirit with him. We wish they had sent him down here to us a long time ago.

LUCILLE FREEMAN

"Lue"

Commercial Club, '31, '32, '33; Spanish Club, '32; May Court, '31; Junior Chorus, '32; Athletic Association, '30, '31.

With her pretty face and winning ways "Cile" has won all the hearts at Hampton Hi! Although she is a hard worker, we're wondering which is the more important—Business or Newport News.

MELVIN GAULEY

"Mel"

Freshman President, '27; Athletic Association, '30, '31; Glee Club, '29, '30; Baseball, '27; Sesqui-Centennial, '32; Junior Secretary, '32; Junior Pin Committee, '32.

Melvin is proud to think that there is a cap and gown waiting for him in June. Maybe there should be two diplomas, too, or a note from some sweet little girl.

DORCAS GILLIAM

French Club, '31, '32; Junior Chorus, '32; Glee Club, '30, '31; Operetta, '30; Athletic Association, '30, '31, '32; Junior Red Cross, '30, '31, '32, '33.

Whenever Dorcas is around, everybody has a good time. Hampton Hi will miss her happy disposition, and her way of wanting to help everybody. Those little Newport News boys are going to be glad that she has finished school.

VIRGINIA GOODRICH

"Doodles"

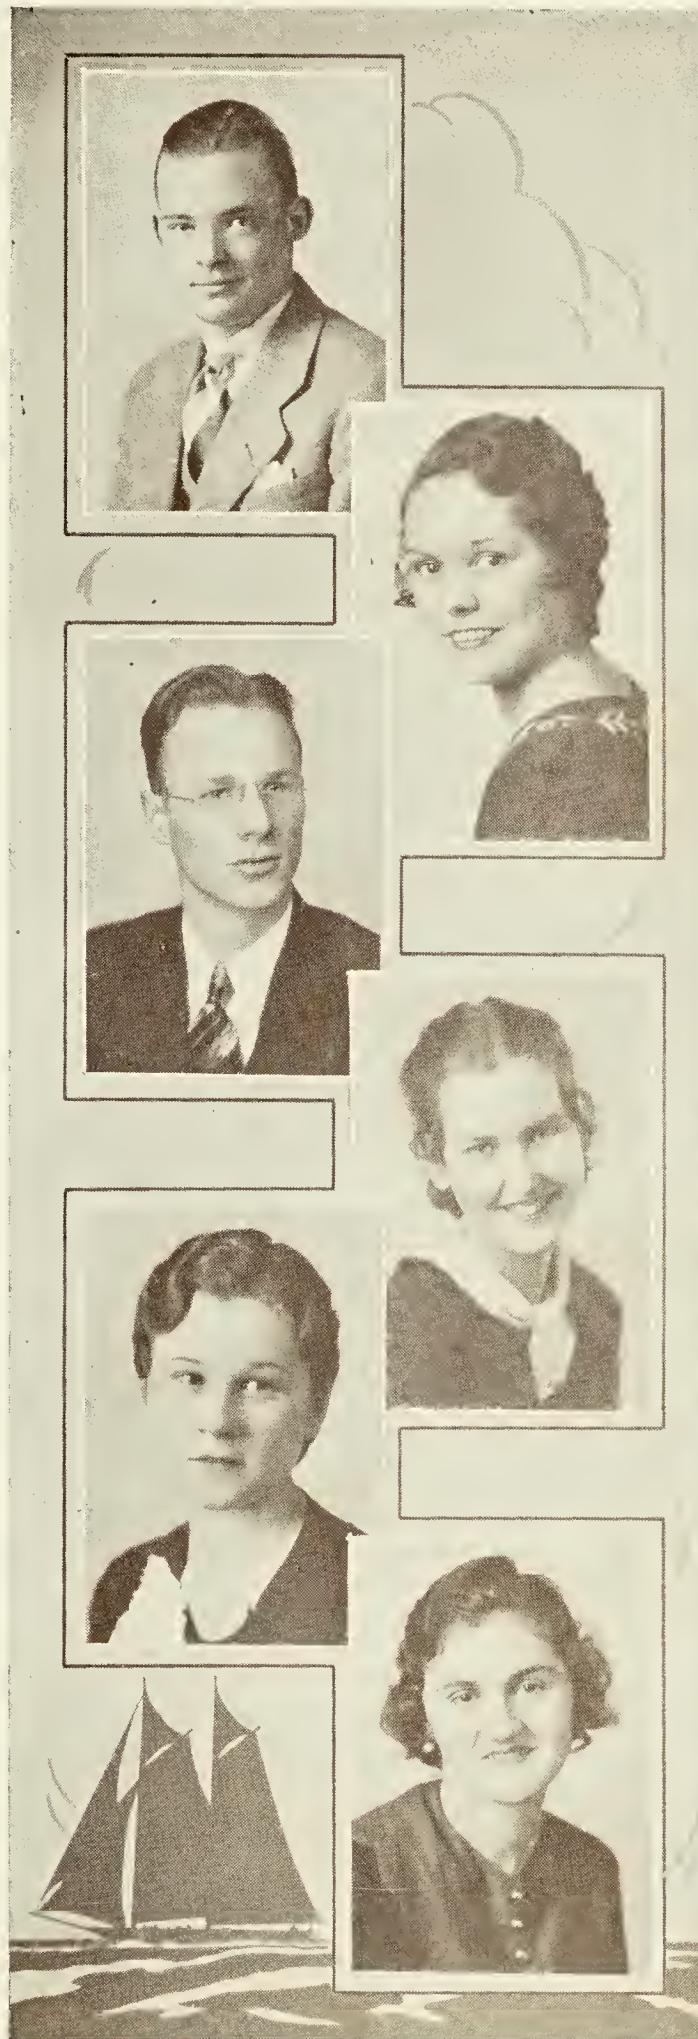

Commercial Club, '31, '32, '33; Spanish Club, '32; Junior Chorus, '32; Athletic Association, '30, '31; Junior Red Cross, '31.

With Doodles' attractive face and business abilities, she should make a success in the world, unless there is a little interference from Newport News. Along with her sweetness of disposition, we find her to be reliable, independent, intelligent, and true.

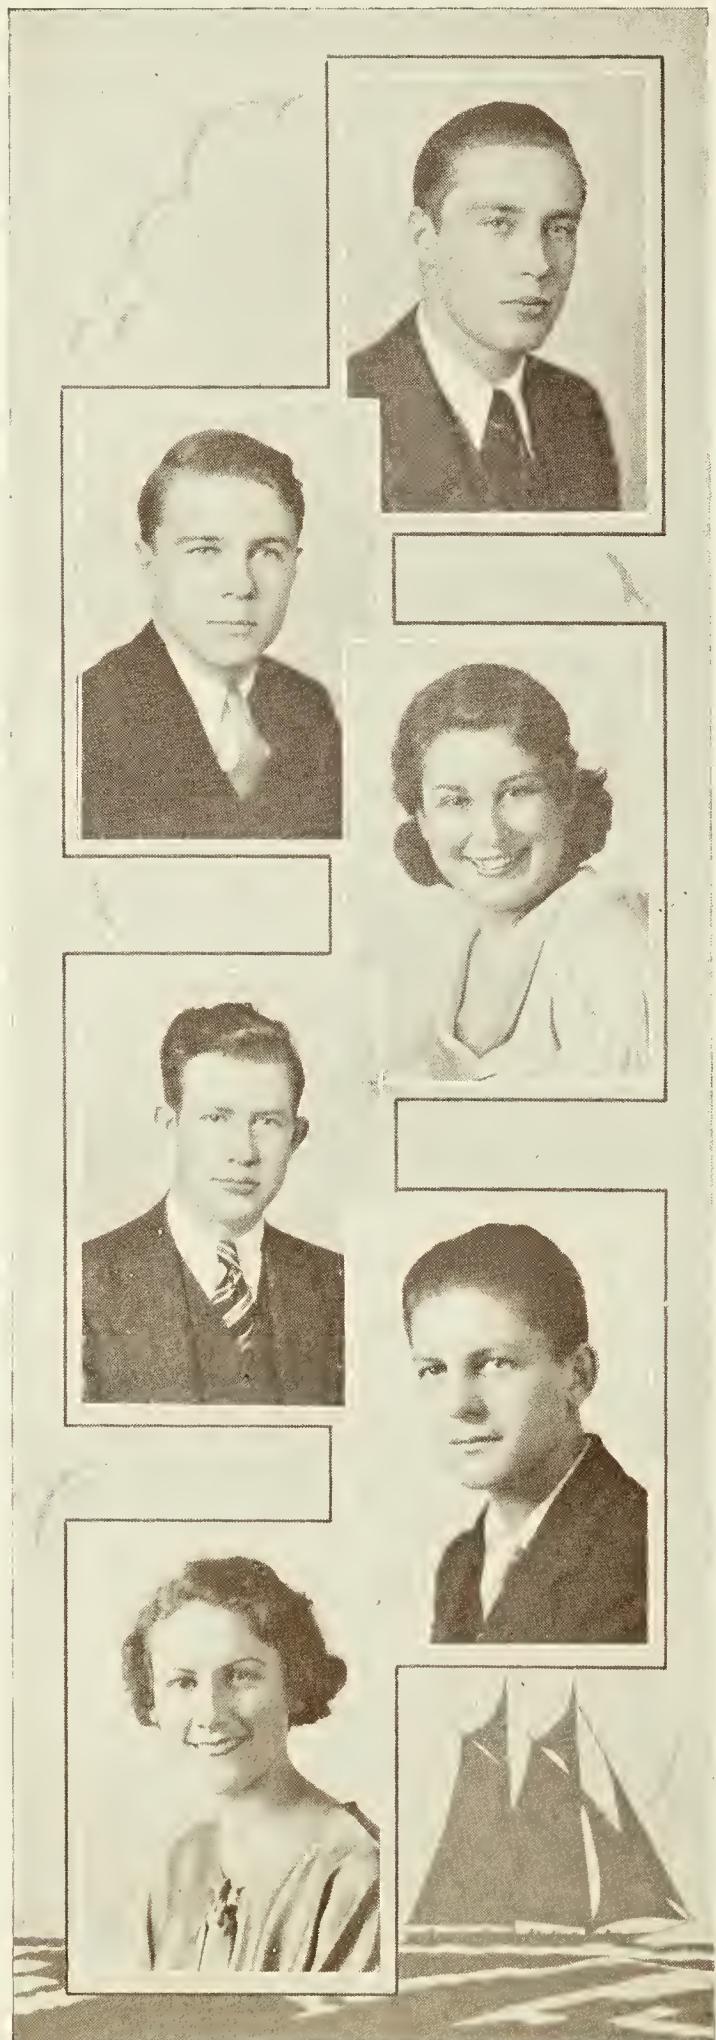

ANNA LEE GORDON

Athletic Association, '30, '31, '32, '33; French Club, '32, '33; Krabba Staff Minstrel, '32; May Court, '30; Junior Chorus, '32; Pep Club, '32; D. D. K., '32, '33.

When you see the long, black hood of an auto coming down the street you may expect to see Anna Lee sitting behind the wheel. She is a good student and one to whom you can tell your troubles. We wish her much success and know that she will have it.

THE KRABBA

JOHN GREENE

Track Team, '30, '31, '32, '33; Football, '32; Dramatic Club Play, "First Dress Suit"; Byrd Literary Society, '30; Thomas Jefferson Literary Society, '31; Baseball, '31.

John's ability to attract the girls is known from Phoebus to Hampton. His manly physique surely "Gets 'em". Johnnie showed his dramatic talent in "The First Dress Suit".

GEORGE C. GUNN

Journalism Club, '32; Latin Club, '30, '31; French Club, '31.

His tranquillity of mind and unscrupulous methods of conversation give him an air of nonchalance which, nevertheless, does not prevent him from being a good fellow and a valuable friend. He is quite a wise-cracker and could be called by some, "The Snooping News Reporter".

DOROTHY GUSTAFSON "Dot"

Basketball, '30.

Dot comes back to us from our dear old rivals, "Shipbuilders", after two and a half years. For more about her get in touch with that certain boy named Jack.

NORWARD COLBURN HAMILTON "Red"

Athletic Association, '31; French Club, '31.

Red is a robust youth with a flaming head. He finds an interest in women and horses, and is often seen entering the road to Rivermount.

PAUL HANCOCK

Literary Society, '28; Latin Club, '29, '30; French Club, '31, '32; Orchestra, '30.

Paul is quite a character around the high school. Some say he is trifling, but we think that's his own good nature coming out. All of his high school life has been spent here and he's a true Krabba. Here's success to him in future life.

KATHERINE P. HAYWOOD "Kitty"

Basketball, '30, '31; Athletic Association, '30, '31; Commercial Club, '31, '32; May Court, '32; Spanish Club, '31, '32; Cheer Leader, '32; Junior Chorus, '32; Secretary Junior Class, '32.

For the past four years a large majority of the boys have been rather dazed. Look at this picture and you'll know the reason why. "Kitty" is all there when it comes to dancing. Ask the boys, they know.

THE KRABBA

LINWOOD HENDERSON

Athletic Association, '31.

Linwood has all the qualities which go into the making of an honest and intelligent citizen, and that is saying something.

ANN HINMAN

Athletic Association, '30, '31; D. D. K., '30, '31, '32, '33; Vice-President D. D. K., '33; Dramatic Club, '32, '33; Dramatic Club Play, '32; French Club, '32; May Court, '31, '32; Glee Club, '30, '31; Operetta, '30; Cheer Leader, '32; D. D. K. Minstrels, '30, '31, '32.

Her golden hair, dramatic ability and other good characteristics combine to make her the "Carbo" of Hampton High. Cleopatra never had as many admirers as this lady. She's a worker and we're sure she'll get along in the world.

MARION HINMAN

"Sis"

Athletic Association, '31; Latin Club, '31; Secretary Latin Club, '32; French Club, '32; Secretary French Club, '33; Vice-Pres. Chemistry Club, '32; Treasurer Chemistry Club, '33; Junior Chorus, '32; Asst. Manager Girls Basketball, '33.

"Sis" is one of our best students. Although she seems to like all of her classes, she enjoys History most. We wonder if it is the History or _____.

HENRIETTA H. HOOVER

"Henri"

Athletic Association, '30, '31; Latin Club, '31; French Club, '32, '33; Krabba Staff, '33; Junior Chorus, '32; Pioneer Staff, '32; Ticket Manager, "Whole Town's Talking".

Henrietta is a studious, hard working girl. Whatever she sets out to do she will accomplish. We wish you luck in future life, Henri.

ALLSTON HOUSE

"Pill"

Here is a lad of a persevering nature. The look in his eyes when he entered the room for his fifth 2A Latin exam seemed to say, "I will pass 2A Latin though all Rome shall laugh and bid me give it up." Pill is a boy who is always true to his friends and his word. He has many friends and few enemies.

NELSON HOWE

"Fess"

Boxing Team, '33; Journalism Class, '33.

"Fess" has a touch of absent-mindedness, but still he is friendly. He leaves us with many friends to his credit and not one enemy.

1933

THE KRABBA

RAYMOND HULCHER

Athletic Association, '29; Band, '31; French Club, '31, '32.

He has an originality of mind which delights his friends and anyone else who hears him. His most remarkable characteristic is that of being able to say the right thing at the right time. He doesn't have to have people wish him luck—he would have it anyway.

ARCHER JONES

The Senior Play, '33; Athletic Association, '31, '32, '33; French Club, '32.

Archer is a sea going man of wide renown, and is interested in harbors anywhere from Newport News to Phoebus. He'll own a fleet some day.

ELIZABETH JONES

Commercial Club, '31, '32, '33; Glee Club, '32; Red Cross, '32.

Elizabeth never has tried to be remembered as the most studious girl in her class, but she radiates that nice quiet joy that makes us all happier when we are in her class. Elizabeth gets ahead of most of us in the class, but we know that when we come along she'll greet us with those blue eyes that talk. Good luck to you, Elizabeth.

LUCY PAGE JONES

Commercial Club, '31; Athletic Association, '30; D. D. K. Club, '31, '32, '33.

How this girl can be so quiet and unconcerned, and yet be so popular with the boys is more than can be figured out. She takes commercial and it is generally felt that she would make someone a good stenographer.

LUCILLE IRIS JOHNSON "Cile"

May Court, '31; Junior Chorus, '31; Home Economics Club, '32; Commercial Club, '31, '32, '33.

I wonder who was making all of that noise at the football games last season—noise for a certain curly haired captain! Well, when you are in doubt about that Captain of '32 on Thursday night, ask this would-be dignified senior of '33.

GAIL JOSSELYN

Athletic Association; Basketball Team; Krabba Staff, '29, '30; French Club; "Whole Town's Talking"; Garrick Dramatic Club; Pioneer Staff.

Have you seen that little girl with the gorgeous brown eyes? Well, just take a look at her! Her perfect figure will probably lead her to Hollywood some day. Before long maybe she will be sailing for France to join a certain blond. We wonder who!

THE KRABBA

JULIA LEE

"Judy"

Athletic Association, '30, '31; Junior Red Cross, '30; Latin Club, '30, '31, '32; Junior Chorus, '32.

Julia is a talkative, jolly, little girl, but never neglects her studies. She will be remembered for having everything and anything at the right time. She is consumed with a passion for art. We hope she will make a go of it.

RUTH LUCILLE LEWIS

Athletic Association, '29, '30; Junior Chorus, '32; Commercial Club, '32, '33.

Ruth rates high in the possession of charm and a good disposition. She is always smiling and full of pep.

ROGER LUCY

Krabba Staff, '33; Commercial Club.

His crooked smile is a familiar sight around the school and there isn't one who sees it but is ready to smile with him. He is always ready to chip in and help with the hard work.

ELIZABETH MADDOX

"Billie"

Commercial Club, '33; Transferred from Newport News High School.

Elizabeth is from Newport News; nevertheless, she has made an impression on Hampton and on a certain youth across the room. Elizabeth doesn't talk very much but just the same her name is found on the Roll of Honor.

LUCILLE MASON

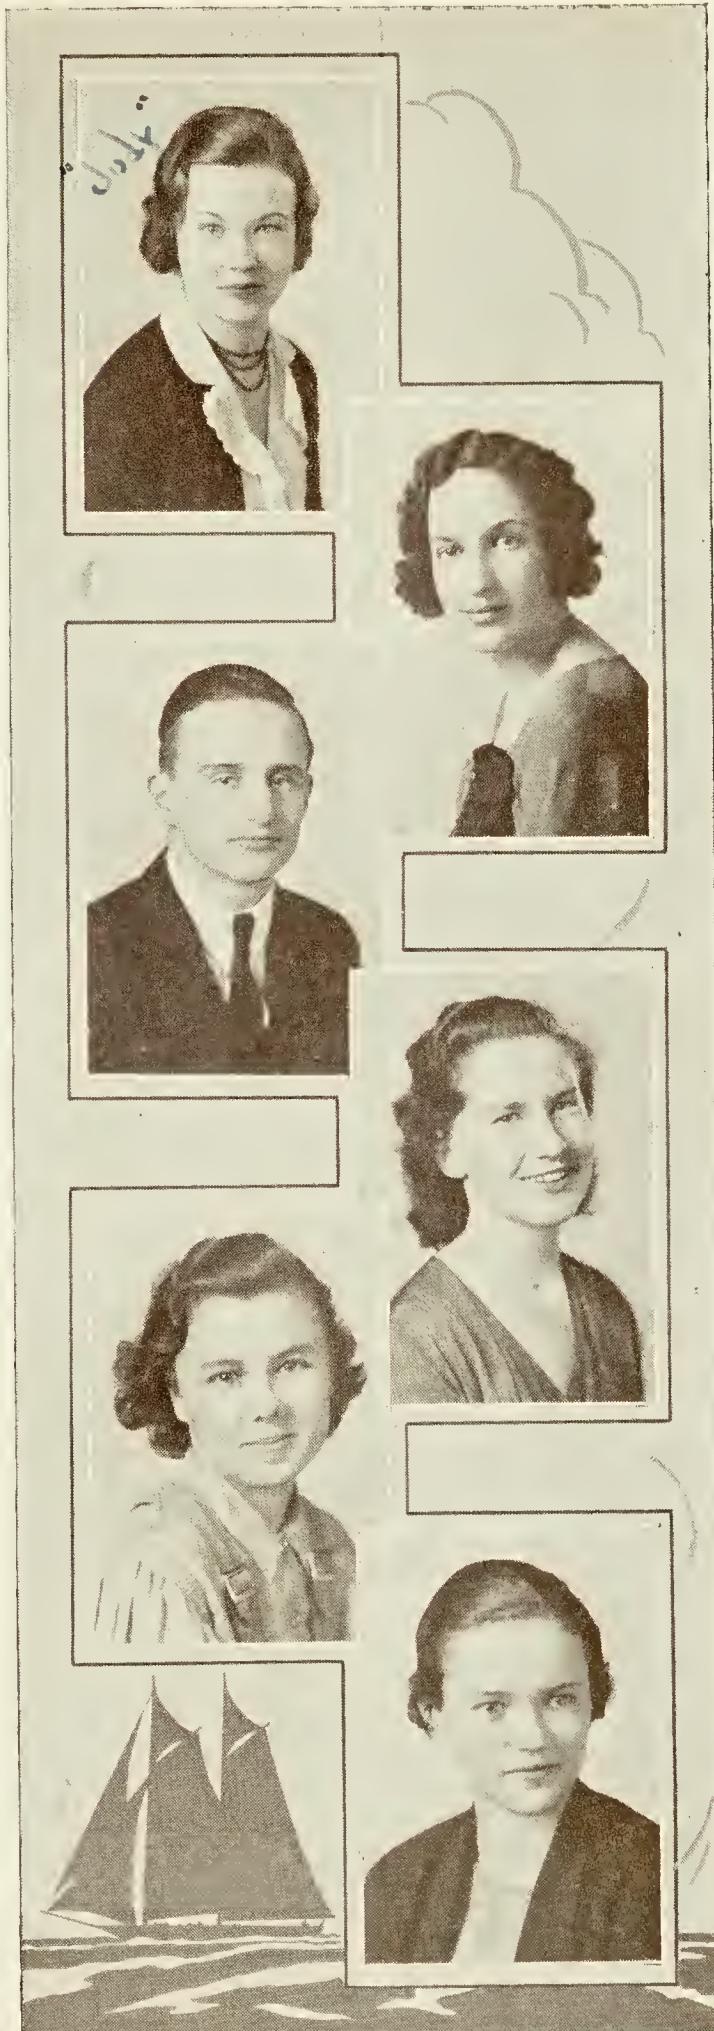

Athletic Association, '30; Latin Club, '30; Junior Chorus, '32.

Lucille is a good natured girl whom everyone likes and knows. She always has a smile of greeting for everyone and is ready to help when she can.

ANN MASTERS

D. D. K., '30, '31, '32, '33; President D. D. K., '32, '33; Athletic Association, '31, '32; Secretary of Red Cross, '29; Vice-Pres. of Sophomore Class, '30; Secretary Athletic Council, '32; French Club, '31, '32.

Ann has a touch of dignity which adds to her attractiveness. By the looks of her career as a D. D. K. she must live up to the motto, D. D. K. (whatever that may mean).

THE KRABBA

DAISY McMENAMIN

Garriek Dramatic Club, '33; Basketball Squad, '31, '32, '33; Captain, '33; Athletic Association, '30, '31; Athletic Council, '33; Krabba Staff, '32, '33; Monogram Club, '33; Vice-President, '33; Journalism Club, '32; Latin Club, '31, '32; French Club, '33; "Whole Town's Talking", '32; Senior Play, '33.

Who is that laughing over there? Why Daisy, of course. Daisy is a basketball star and is Captain of that marvelous team—"The Scoreless Wonders".

KENNETH MILLER

"Ken"

Latin Club, '30; French Club, '31, '32; Vice-President Senior Class, '33; Editor-in-Chief of Krabba, '33.

Ken is resourceful, reliable, and a good student. You can trust him with anything to the end of the world. He is a good sailor and is known for his sailboat rides in the moonlight.

MARIE PARKER MOORE

"Rie"

Glee Club, '31, '33; Athletic Association, '31; Chemistry Club, '32; Junior Chorus, '32; Patrick Henry Literary Society, '30; Journalism Club, '32; Cheer Leader, '33.

Marie is peppy, vivacious, and full of fun. Everyone knows her and likes to have her around. We wish her luck and believe that she will go far.

ROXIE MOORE

Football, '29, '30, '31, '32; Baseball, '30, '31; Golf, '32, '33; President of Sophomore Class, '29; President of Junior Class, '30; Krabba Staff, '30, '32; Athletic Association, '28, '29, '30, '31; Athletic Council, '29, '30, '31; Manager Track, '29; Monogram Club, '29, '30.

Roxie's ability in athletics as shown above is just another of the things that makes him the most popular boy in school. His speaking ability has won him a place in the heart of every student.

RACHEL CAREY NELSON

"Ray"

Junior Red Cross, '29, '30, '31; French Club, '32, '33; Krabba Staff, '33; Journalism, '32; Latin Club, '30; Play Staff, '32.

Ray is a good sport, a true pal, and a dependable worker. She has a good time wherever she goes and Hampton High will miss her original ways.

LILLIAN NEWMAN

Athletic Association, '31, '32; French Club, '31; Commercial Club, '32, '33; Junior Chorus, '31.

Here is one student that is interested in her school work. When she fastens her dark eyes on the opposite sex, their hearts just turn "topsy turvy". Try to look straight into them and you'll know just what it means.

THE KRABBA

LUCILLE OWENS

"Ceil"

Garrick Dramatic Club, '33; "The Whole Town's Talking", '32; Junior Chorus, '32 Latin Club, '31, '32.

She is the little big girl who rides around in big cars and wears "swell" clothes. She had a way with the men, too, in "The Whole Town's Talking". "Ceil" has a heart the size of a Kentucky Mountain and has many friends.

JOHN WRIGHT POWELL

"Jack"

Athletic Association, '30, '31; Commercial Club, '30, '31, '32.

Jack's pleasing personality and his ability to learn Spanish have helped him through high school. As a dairyman we hope he will prosper. Jack don't try to teach your cows Spanish; it won't make them give condensed milk.

ANN POWERS

Junior Chorus, '32; Garrick Dramatic Club, '33; Secretary of Senior Class, '33; Spanish Club, '32; Transferred from Cristobal High School, Canal Zone.

High scholarship combined with an active interest in all school activities makes Ann one of the most valuable students of Hampton High School.

LORENA RAYMOND

Transferred from Bartlett, Kansas High School in '31; Commercial Club, '31, '32, '33; Spanish Club, '32.

Have you ever wished to be smart and have plenty of friends? Well, Lorena has never had to wish this because she was born with these two characteristics. She looks on the bright side of life and always wears a smile.

JAMES CALVIN RICHARDSON

"Jimmie"

Thomas Jefferson Literary Society, '28, '29; Track Team, '29, '31; Krabba Staff, '33; Commercial Club, '30, '31, '32; Athletic Association, '30, '31.

James will be heard broadcasting his guitar music over one of the big stations before long. We hope that he will be seen as well as heard, for that permanent wave shouldn't be missed.

PAUL ROCHELLE

Academic Course; Priestley Chemistry Club, '33.

Paul should by now be pretty well learned since he has been to three schools: Newport News, Phoebe and Hampton. He is probably the smallest graduate of the class of 'thirty-three and is known as the History teacher's "pet".

THE KRABBA

WILLIAM ROTHENBERG

Academic Course; Spanish Club, '32.

"Bill" has acquired much knowledge through travel and by attending many schools. His outstanding achievement is in the world of art.

ELIZABETH PHILLIPS ROUNTREE

"Liz" "Beth"

Glee Club, '31; Dramatic Club, '32, '33; French Club, '32; Latin Club, '30, '31; Junior Chorus, '31; Athletic Association, '30, '31; Journalism, '32; "The Thirteenth Day", '32; "Penitent Pirates".

Liz is the girl with the smile for everyone. She has smiled her way through four years of high school. Happy, jolly, and attractive, Liz makes friends wherever she goes. H. H. S. will miss her.

H. GORDEN ROUTTEN

Athletic Association, '30, '31; Pep Club, '32.

Gorden Routten, the student with the brief case, is friendly to everyone, and especially to the freshman girls. His friendly disposition makes him the best prospect for the peninsula's greatest dentist. We wish him luck with his patient sweetheart who has waited for him to finish high school, and we hope she will not rush him into the fish business until he finishes college.

RICHARD AUTHER RUTH

"Dick"

Athletic Association, '31; French Club, '32, '33; Track Team, '31, '32, '33.

Dick is a regular fellow, with a good deal more than average intelligence—a combination that's hard to beat! We wonder what that curly haired boy would do without his Helen.

LENA SAUNDERS

Commercial Club, '31, '32, '33; Spanish Club, '32; Home Economics, '32; Junior Chorus, '32; Athletic Association, '30, '31.

"Always ready to help others", is Lena's motto. She never seems to worry about anything, and whenever you meet her she always greets you with a smile.

SEYMOUR SAUNDERS

Football Squad, '32; Woodrow Wilson Club, '29.

Live wire Saunders! He is happy go lucky, very friendly and has proven to be most useful in taking people to and from Phoebus in that Austin. Here's to that cheerful disposition, Seymour!

THE KRABBA

ELIZABETH SCHUMACHER "Liz"

Athletic Association, '31, '32, '33; Journalism Club, '32; Basketball Team, '33; Treasurer Senior Class, '33; Krabba Staff, '33; French Club, '31, '32; Junior Red Cross, '31; Monogram Club, '33; Invitation Committee, '33.

Elizabeth is intelligent, athletic, well liked, a good sport, and an excellent treasurer. We know she will succeed in anything she undertakes, as she has succeeded in H. H. S.

EARL SEALEY

French Club.

If you've ever seen Earl without something blue on, it just wasn't Earl. It surely isn't his mood that he wants to match, for he's never blue. Maybe it's the blond hair he wishes to set off.

HARRY SELDEN

Boxing Team, '33; Christmas Pageant, '32.

Harry is always ready for a joke. His cheerful yet serious countenance causes him to be liked by everyone. We will miss his free rides that he and his new Ford provided for us.

MYRON A. SHAFER

M. B. Club, '32, '33; Golf Team, '32, '33; Cheer Leader, '32, '33; French Club, '32.

Here you see the best looking boy in the school. His way with the girls is just too much to talk about. He captures and breaks many hearts, but still the girls like him. With the boys, he's just a "good fellow".

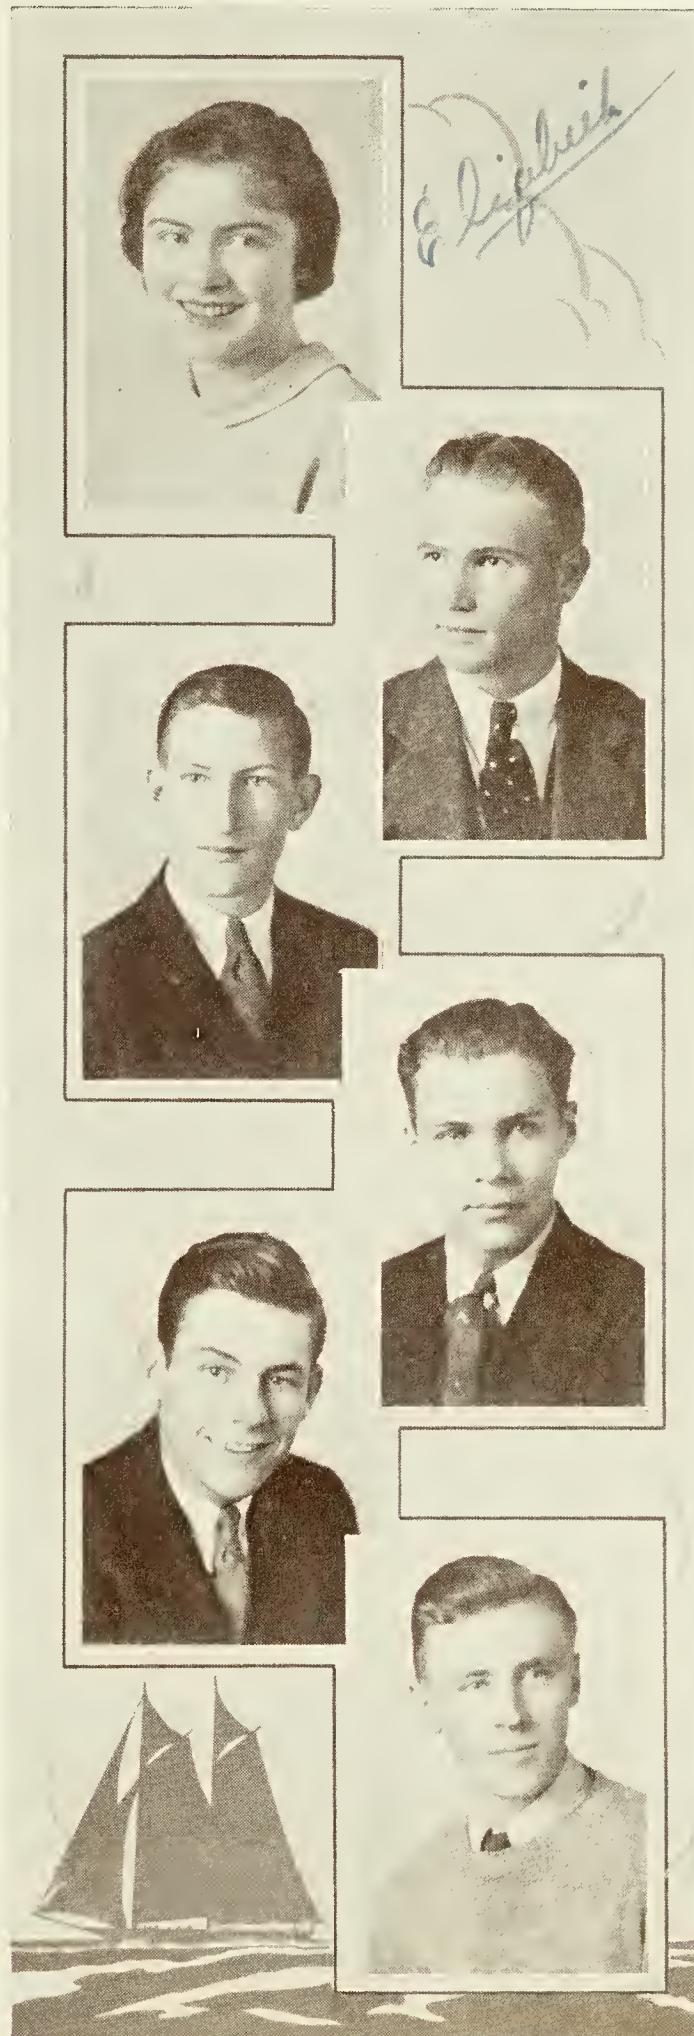

JAMES HUBERT SHEEHAN "Jimmie"

Athletic Association, '30, '31; Commercial Club, '32, '33; Treasurer Commercial Club, '32; Krabba Staff, '31, '32, '33; Christmas Pageant, '32; "Thank You Doctor", '33; "First Dress Suit", '33; Garrick Dramatic Club, '33.

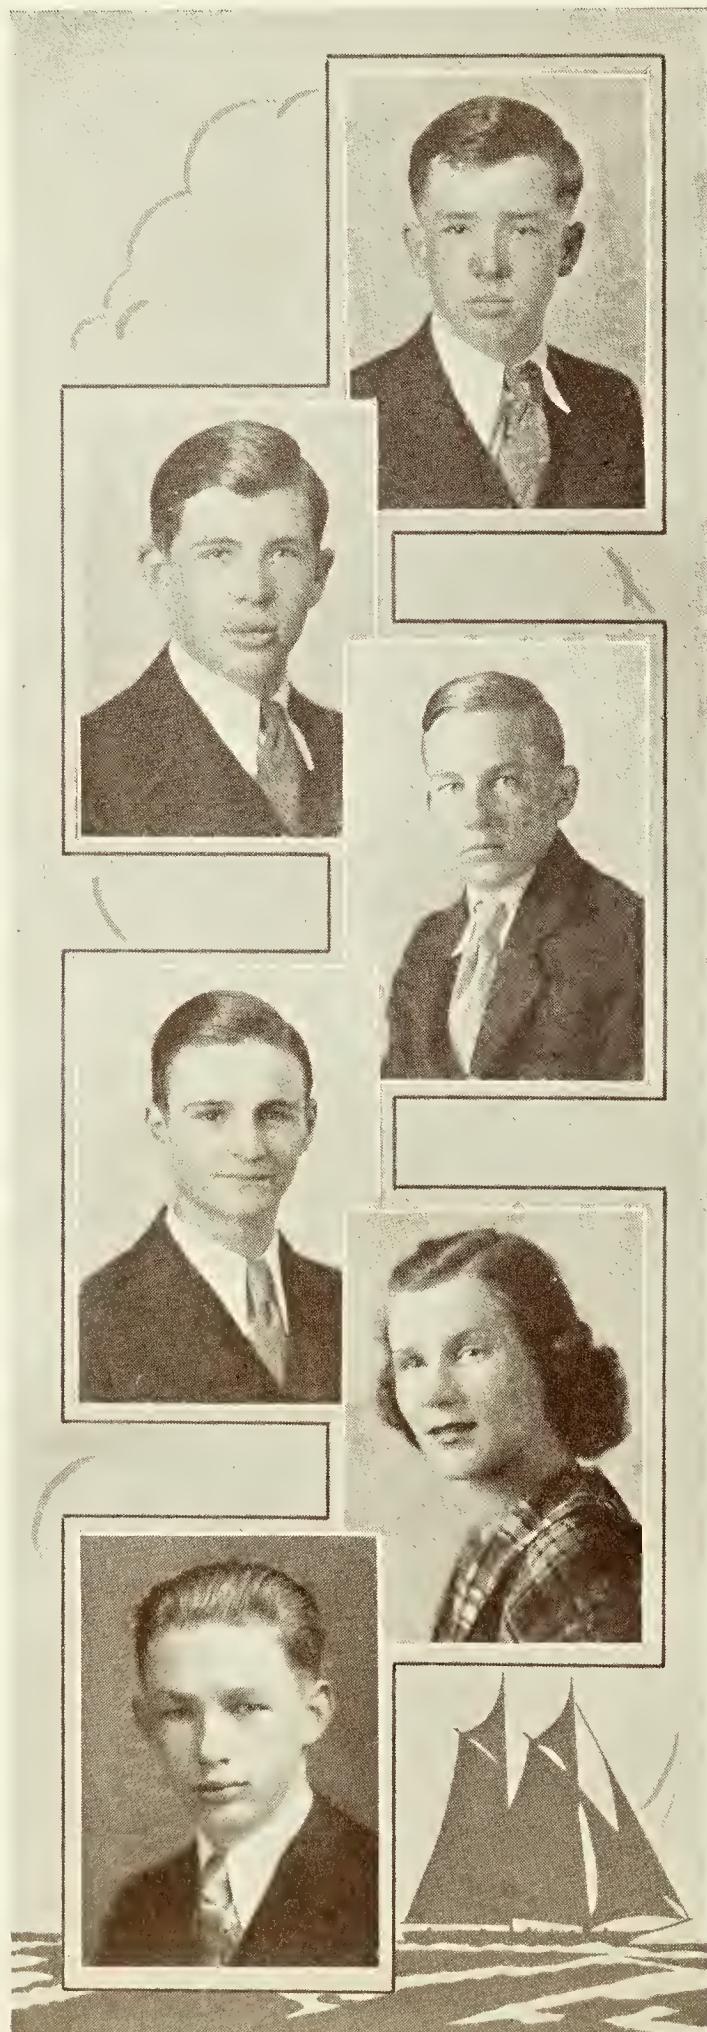

Jimmie takes an interest in almost everything. Recently he has turned to dramatics. If looks mean anything in the world he will surely succeed.

FRENCH SHORTRIDGE

French hails from Grundy, Va., and resides at Langley Field. He is honest, fair, and square, and thus he wins the admiration of his friends and teachers.

THE KRABBA

ARCHIE SINCLAIR

Priestley Chemistry Club, '32; French Club, '32; Athletic Association, '29.

Not yet a "Steinmetz" nor an "Einstein" but give him time. Here's success to you, Archie!

CECIL SINCLAIR

French Club, '31, '32.

Someday this fellow will be a poet. Humor is his main theme, and he's just full of it. He thoroughly enjoys English 7.

JAMES SINCLAIR

Athletic Association, '29, '30; "The Whole Town's Talking", '32; Spanish Club, '32, '33.

Jimmie is a fine sport. No one expected him to be a great lover, but he fooled us all in the play, "The Whole Town's Talking". Keep it up, Jimmie.

WYTHE SINCLAIR

Football, '32; Christmas Pageant, '32.

In football, as well as in his studies, Wythe has proved to be a fine sport, not quitting when times look hard. For this reason, Wythe made end on the 1933 football squad which defeated our old rivals, Newport News.

MARTHA SISSON

Commercial Club, '30, '31; Spanish Club, '30, '32; Band, '30; Athletic Association, '30; Glee Club, '32, '33.

With her smile and pleasing personality, Martha will surely make a success in the business world.

RICHARD SKOFIELD

"Dick"

Chemistry Club, '33; French Club, '31, '32; Latin Club, '30, '32, '33.

Dick spent his sophomore year at Mount Hermon School, Mass., but he claims that he was glad to get back—and we were certainly glad to have him.

THE KRABBA

ELLEN SMITH

"Smitty"

Commercial Club, '31, '32, '33; Spanish Club, '32; Junior Chorus, '32; Krabba Staff, '33; Athletic Association, '31; Patrick Henry Literary Society, '29.

We who know Ellen find her a perfect friend. She will make a good secretary with her common sense and fun. She never lets anything worry her.

HARRY THOMAS STULTZ

"Bill"

Athletic Association, '30, '31; Athletic Council, '33; Krabba Staff, '31, '32, '33; Track Squad, '32; Manager Track Squad, '33; Treasurer Pep Club, '32; Christmas Pageant, '32; "The Whole Town's Talking", '32; "Thank You Doctor", '33; "The Millionaire", '33; Garrick Dramatic Club, '33; President Senior Class, '33.

Bill is one of the most versatile fellows we know. His scholarship, dramatic ability and school spirit, together with his dancing make him a popular character. May he succeed in whatever he undertakes.

JANE SUNDERLAND

The Senior Play, '33; D. D. K.; Invitation Committee (Seniors).

Although Jane has been with us only a short time she has proved to be one of the best liked, as well as one of the most original students.

BETTY THOMPSON

Garrick Dramatic Club, '32, '33; Secretary, '32; Basketball Squad, '31, '32, '33; Secretary and Treasurer of Freshman Class, '30; Secretary of Sophomore Class, '31; Athletic Association, '30, '31; Girls' Monogram Club, '33; President, '33; Glee Club, '30, '31; Operetta, '30, '31; Latin Club, '30, '31, '32; Spanish Club, '32; "The Thirteenth Day", '32; "Wrong Number", '32; "The Whole Town's Talking", '32; "Highness", '33; "The Millionaire", '33; Journalism Club, '32.

Her knack of leadership has helped Hampton High in many undertakings and we know that she will continue her good work at college.

LELAND EUBANK THORNTON

"Slippery"

Athletic Association, '30; Commercial Club, '31.

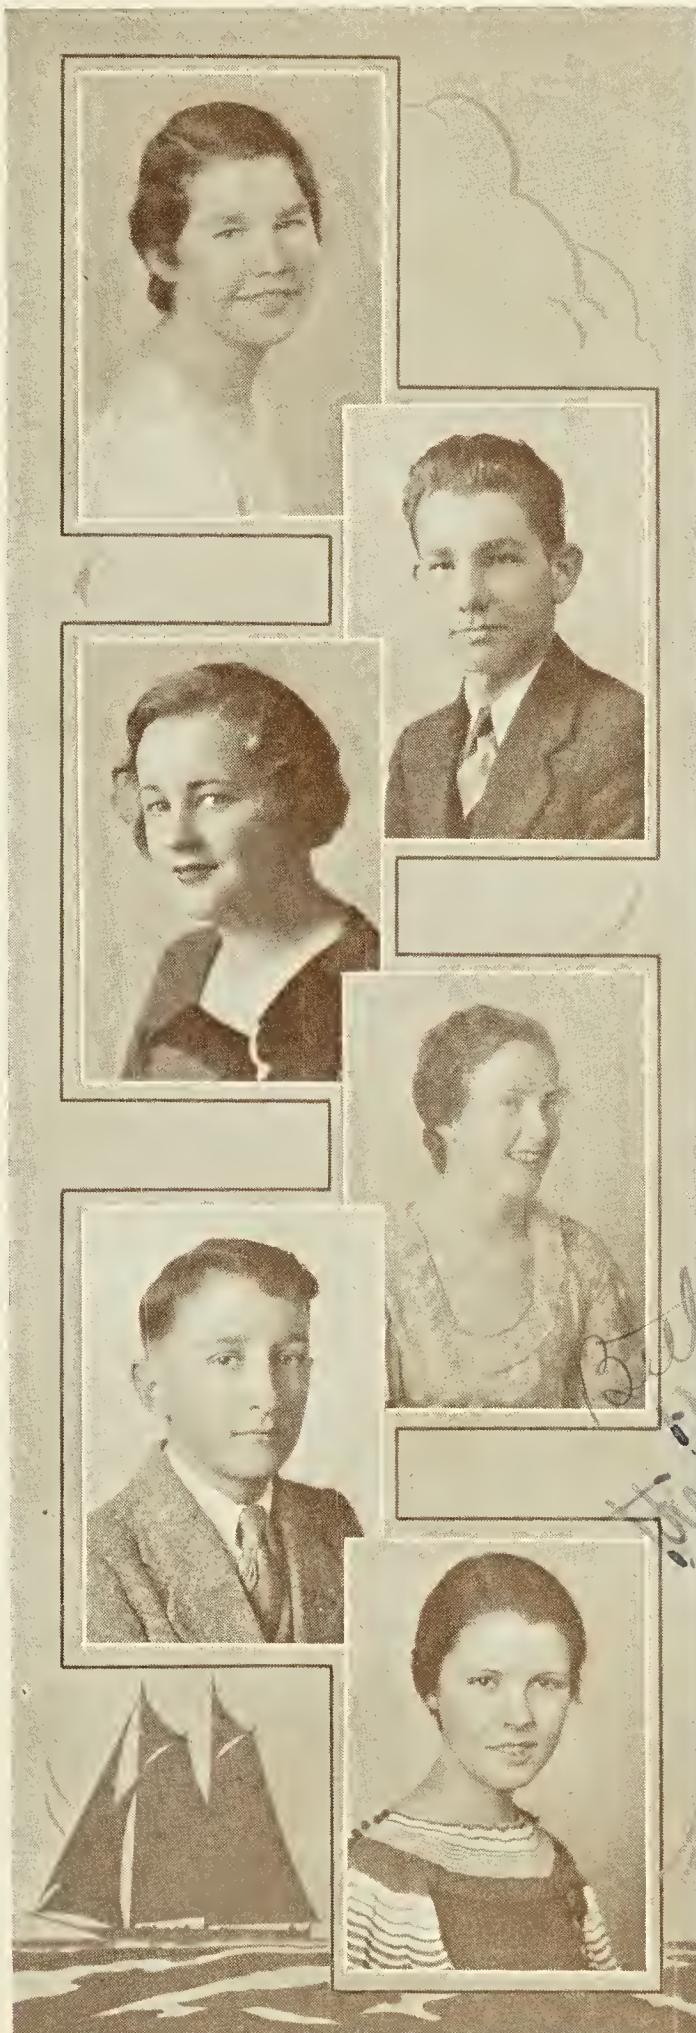

Slippery is a commercial student of Hampton High School. He is a splendid fellow of good standing, who will make a good citizen someday.

MATTIE MAE TOPPING

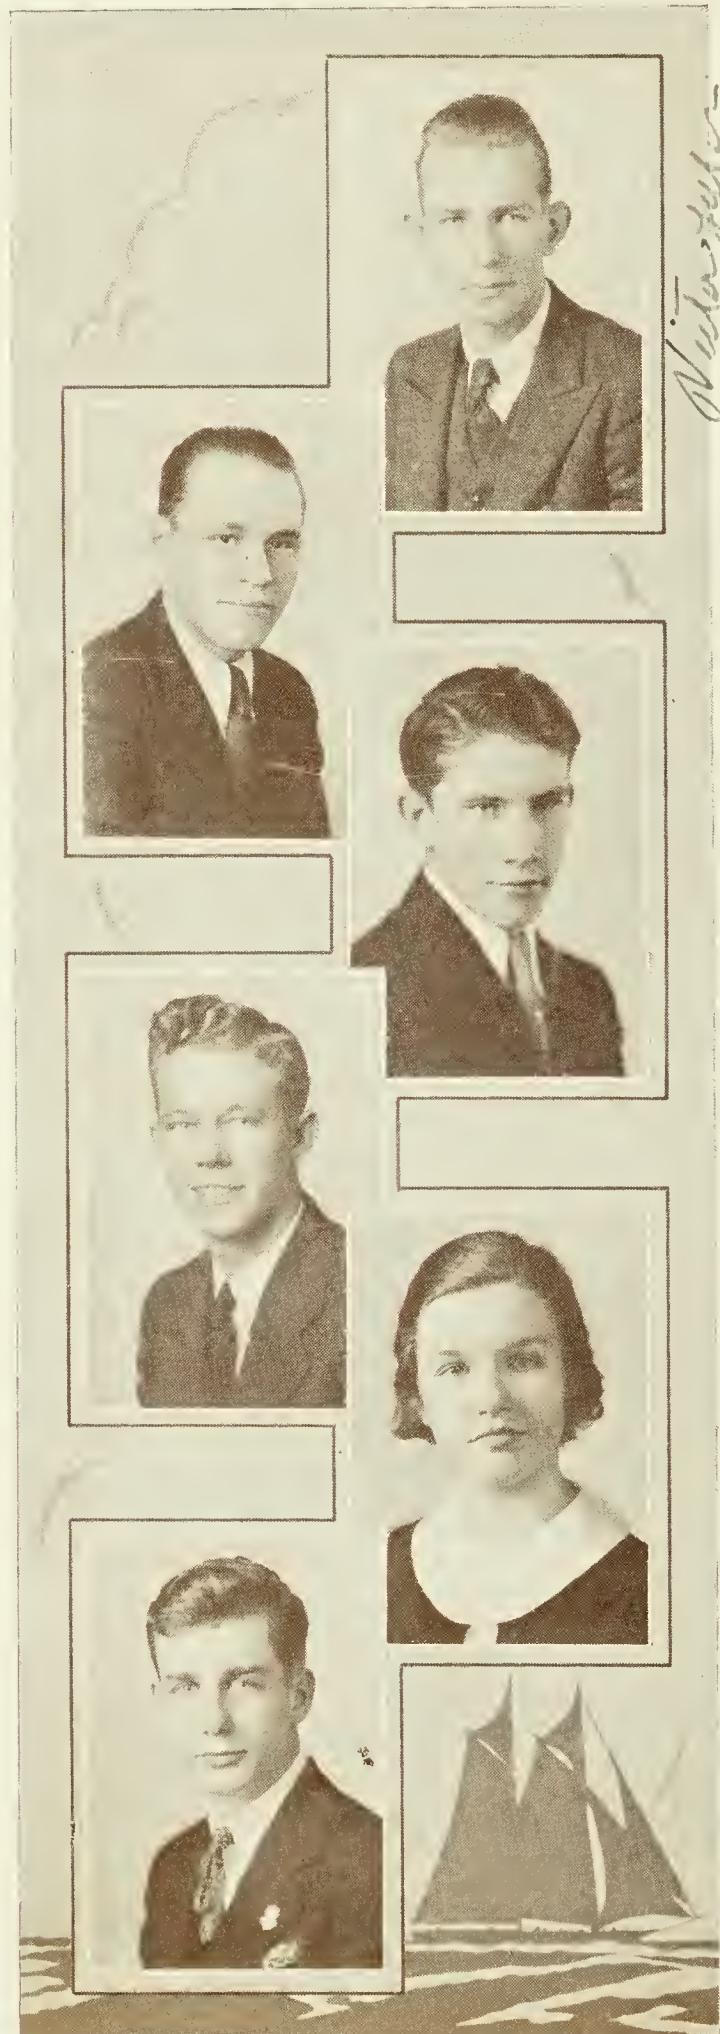

"Toots"

Commercial Club, '31, '32, '33; Spanish Club, '32, '33; Operetta, '31; Krabba Staff, '30, '31; May Queen, '32; Junior Chorus, '32.

Mattie has been one of the best liked as well as the best-looking girls that Hampton High has known. Her ability for making grades and her sweet disposition have made her a valuable asset to the school. We wonder what some person thinks about her being away at Fredericksburg?

THE KRAIBBA

VICTOR TYLER
"Snake"

Football, '32; Track, '33.

Victor is the long, lanky, bucket footed chap who hangs around with the other Phoebusites. "Snake", we wish you luck in winning your way to success in life as you have in Hampton High School.

LLOYD WALLACE

Baseball, '28, '29, '30; Athletic Association, '28, '29, '30; Monogram Club, '28, '29, '30.

Lloyd hails from Fox Hill. He is very much interested in brushes, especially the "Fuller".

OSCAR WARD
"Wild Ossie"

Football, '32.

Oscar is always laughing or grinning. Somehow he reminds us of Joe E. Brown. Maybe this will help him cure his patients when he becomes a doctor.

JOHN WHARTON

"Mammie" Society, '29; Athletic Association, '29, '30, '31; Historian of Class of '33; Pioneer Staff, '32.

Johnny's business ability assures us that the wolf will never come sniffing around his door. When we called on him to write the class history, we found that he had a poetical vein.

LOUISE WIATT

Junior Chorus, '32; French Club, '32, '33.

Just wait until you meet Louise. Her smile and kind words win friends for her wherever she goes. She has a sweet disposition and is an all round good sport.

EDWARD DANIEL WILLIAMS

"Danny"

Garrick Dramatic Club, '32, '33; French Club, '32, '33; Athletic Association, '30, '31; U-Dunka-Bun Fraternity, '32; "Whole Town's Talking", '32; Physics Goat's Club, '32; President Of Club, '33.

Admiral Williams is seen to best advantage on the deck of one of his many sea going vessels. As a rule he tacks his sloop toward our little seaside resort, to court his "lady love".

THE KRAMBA

ANN CROMWELL WILSON

Glee Club, '29, '30; Athletic Association, '30; Pep Club, '32; Junior Chorus, '32; Music Appreciation, '29; Operetta, '31.

Ann is always in a good humor and her disposition makes her a pleasant companion especially to one who graduated in '32.

GROVER L. WILSON

"Junior"

Athletic Association, '30, '31, '32; French Club, '31, '32.

Junior is our handsome, dark-haired "Romco". He is a fine fellow in his own way. We must admit that anyone who can finish high school with no enemies must be O. K.

SHEPHERD WILSON

Pep Club, '32.

A man of few words is "Shep". Fine sportsmanship and the ability to make lasting friends are his well-known characteristics. Who can beat this combination of qualities in an all-round good fellow?

ELAINE WINNER

"Laine"

Commercial Club, '31, '32; Spanish Club, '32; Glee Club, '33; Pioneer Staff, '32; Junior Chorus, '32; School Orchestra, '32, '33.

As a pianist and accompanist Elaine is a "Winner". She is rated for her musical ability, her engaging personality, and the knack of being able to be a real friend. It is needless to say that next year the programs will suffer.

STAFFORD WOOTTON

"Staff"

Krabba Staff.

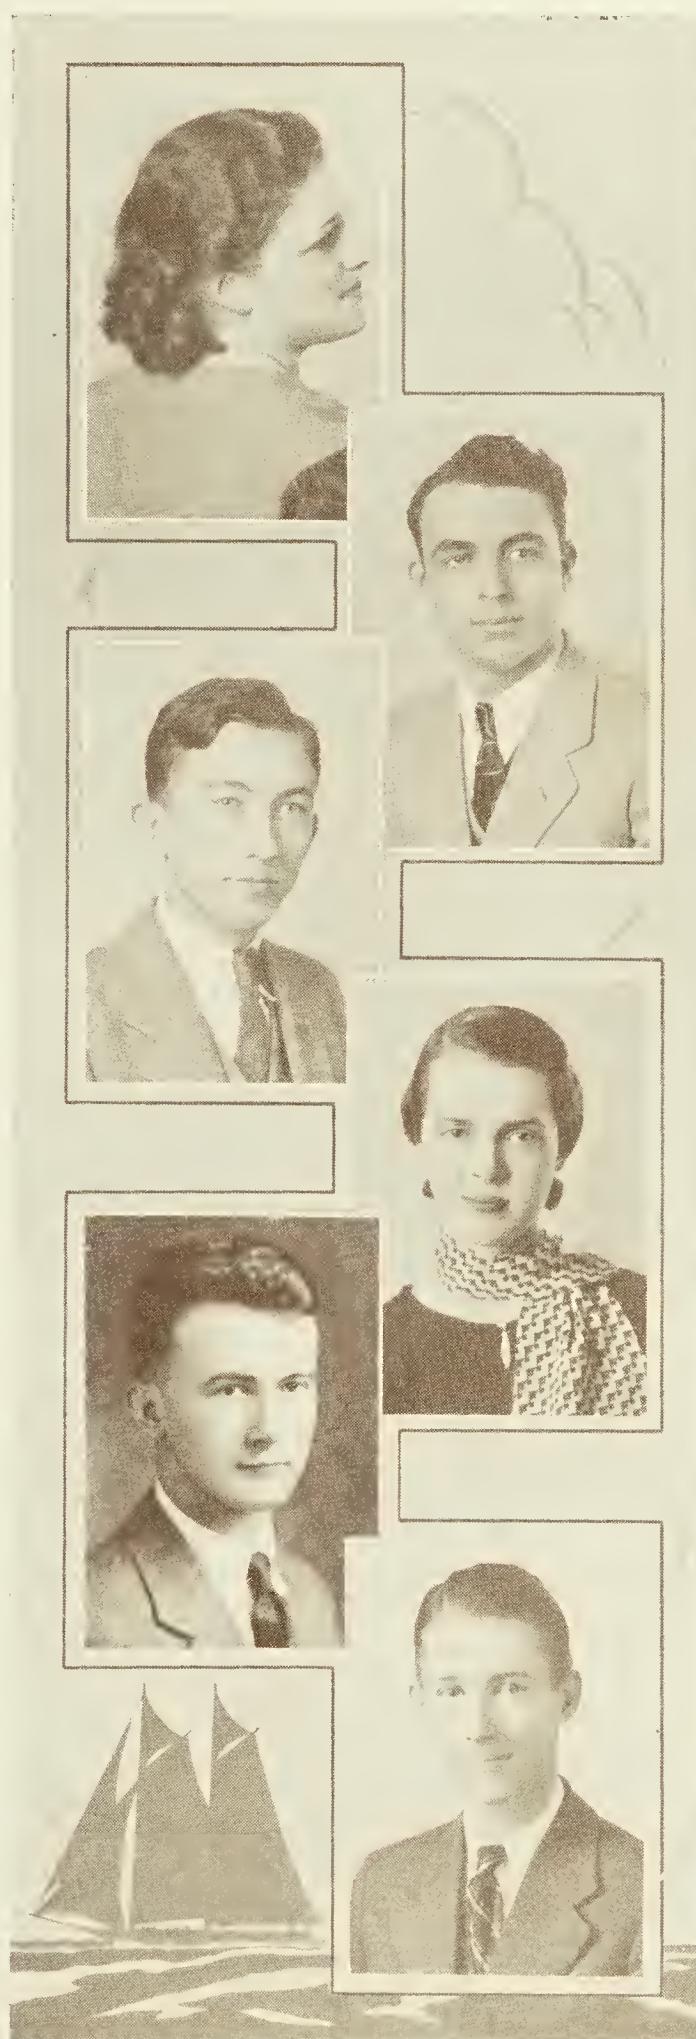

Stafford's work on the Krabba Staff for the past four years has proved his ability along this line of work. He is as steady as the rock of Gibraltar, and is well liked by the ladies. Stafford has a list of activities a mile long, but he left for Connecticut without cataloging them.

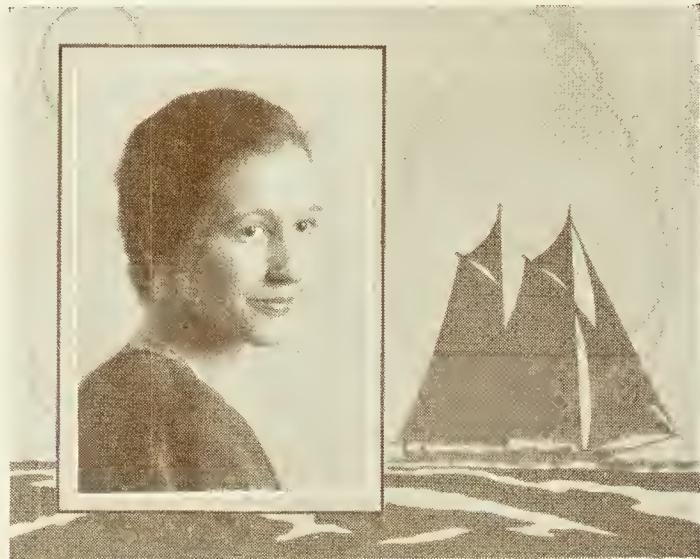

KENNETH WRAY

"Ken"

Football Squad, '29, '30, '31, '32; Track Squad, '32, '33; Baseball Squad, '29, '30, '31; Basketball Manager, '33; Treasurer of Sophomore Class, '31; President of "The Electrical Forum", '33; Member of the M. B. Club, '32, '33; Supt. of Electrical Shop, '32, '33.

Ken is a model of an athlete and also is active in the shop. He is very popular as a result of his witty and naive way.

LOUISE WYNNE

French Club, '32; Athletic Association, '30;
Junior Chorus, '32.

Louise is quiet and shy but she is well known and liked. She is always working hard and striving to please. Here's luck and success to her!

To Make A Man

*Two legs
And the earth before them,
Two eyes
And things to see,
Two arms
And some one for them,
A brain
And things to be.*

*A mouth
And wise old words to say,
A soul
And a conscience too,
A smile
And a winning way,
A thought
And a heart that is true—
Think! Do all these things
Help make up you?*

DOROTHY COLVIN, '33.

HE KRABBA

History of the Class of '33

By JOHN WHARTON

That clear cool morning in September
Way baek in nineteen twenty nine
I know we'll all well remember
When they said, "Rats, fall in line."

Then mid cheers and jeers of sophomores
We marched to assembly hall.
The boldest and less timid swore
And the timid began to bawl.

We were then assigned to a home room
And told to go there fast.
We went like lambs led to our doom,
Thinking each minute was our last.

Soon we had all settled down,
For those horrors did not last.
We deeided time had come around
To call a meeting of our class.

"Marguerite Bradford for our president,"
A voice rose loud and clear.
Joe Bryant is Vice-president.
Secretary Betty Thompson is a dear.

Before we knew it, June had come
To the pleasure of us all,
And our thought, was, as we went home,
We'll be sophomores in the fall.

That September morning rolled around
And the "Rats" walked meekly on.
Not one of them dared make a sound
Around us sophomores so grown.

Our Sophomore meeting, it was fine,
We thought that it would last us.
For president did elect Fay Carmines
And for Vice-president, our Ann Masters.

Betty Thompson kept the notes
And some of them were funny.
Then we began to count the votes,
Evelyn Reuter kept the money.

All through that year we did our best
To please both parents and teachers;
Were athletic and all the rest,
But knowledge hardly reached us.

But some way we managed to pull through
And when exams were over, were told
That we all made marks that passed us, too,
One step closer to our goal.

THE KRABBA

As Juniors then we took the helm
And tried to please our erities
By raising to their proper realm
Our athletics and dramaties.

Milford Rollins was our Captain grand
As we sailed tempestous seas.
First mate Ann Masters lends a hand
And does her best to please.

Kitty Haywood was ship's clerk
And purser Mattie Mae Topping,
Should these have failed in their work
Mr. Thorpe would come a hopping.

The events that happened then
Were drab and uneventful
Except the laughter we got when
The Krabba held a minstrel.

September thirty-two, oh year of years
Thrills on thrills had we!
Realization vanquished all our fears
For we are seniors now you see.

'Twas in this most eventful fall,
An event we hold most dear
Defeated Newport News in football
First time in sixteen years.

Harry Stultz is president.
We know he'll make a corker
Kenneth Miller, our vice-president
Secretary Ann Powers, Treas. Elizabeth Schumacher.

To raise money for the cap and gown
That stately and somber raiment
A show at the Langley here in town
Helped us make the payment.

"Little Orphan Annie" was the host
So we in earnest shed shirts to collars.
Then we lived up to our boast
And made over ninety dollars.

And as you through this "Krabba" look,
Whatever you may find,
To us, it's more than just a book,
An expression of our mind.

It'll be with remorse that we look back
At these portals, and these walls
Knowing we will not come back
To wander through these halls.

Now as onward through life we'll go,
Through stress, and strain, and then
We'll want those left behind to know
We'd like to be with you again.

THE END.

The Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of '33, leave this, the Last Will and Testament, to our forthcoming classmen.

To the Juniors we bestow our Senior Privileges, dignity, school spirit and our best wishes for their success in financial matters.

The following graduates leave:

1. Roxie Moore leaves his school spirit to be remembered by all.
2. Julia Bader leaves her excellent grades to Frank Smith.
3. To Charlie Sigler, Richard Bentzel leaves his experiences in physics.
4. Helen Bona leaves her reducing exercises to Irene Craigs.
5. Marguerite Bradford, Anna Lee Gordon, Adelle Chandler, Lucy Page Jones, Ann Hinman, and Ann Masters leave the D. D. K.'s.
6. Ava Burke is at last leaving the boys alone.
7. Fay Carmines leaves some peace to his history class.
8. Dorcas Gilliam leaves for V. M. I.
9. Daisy McMenamin leaves her tongue to waggle in the halls of Hampton High.
10. Freddie Frasch leaves his ability as a cheer leader to Marguerite Darden.
11. Harry Stultz and Marion Hinman leave history class together.
12. To John D. Williams, Archie Sinclair leaves his mathematical ability.
13. Norwood Evans leaves his wit to W. A. Griffith.
14. A. B. Connor leaves his golf clubs to anyone who can use them.
15. Ann Powers leaves her curiosity to Marshall Cloke.
16. Rachel Nelson wishes to leave her conduct slips to Pollyanna Kelly.
17. Elizabeth Allen, Louise Wynne, and Louise Wyatt leave their quiet ways to Bob Stout.
18. To John Bader, Myron Shafer leaves that "Von Hindenburg" hair cut.
19. Stafford Wootten leaves for Newport News.
20. Virginia Cathell leaves a little noise to Peggy Bishop.
21. Victor Tyler leaves a few inches to Alex Wyatt.
22. Lucille Owens leaves those curls to Betty Bond.
23. Allston House leaves his love to Marie Lamb.
24. To Rhea Cooper, Elaine Winner leaves her musical ability.
25. Kitty Haywood, Elsie Evans, Peggy Doane, Deane Crawford, and Elizabeth Maddox leave to be "somebody's stenog."

26. Jessie Cross leaves for Scotland.
27. Jimmie Sheehan leaves his sweet dreams in shorthand class to Lucetta Crawford.
28. Marie Moore leaves the school without one of its active cheer leaders.
29. Jane Sunderland leaves the Girls' Basketball Team without a ride.
30. Mac Curtis leaves for Hilton Village.
31. Charlotte Elliot, Ann Wilson, and Lucille Johnson leave memories of Fox Hill.
32. We hope Julia Lee will leave her bracelets at home.
33. Dick Cloke leaves his dramatic ability to Margaret House.
34. Elizabeth Schumacher leaves her intelligence to Ann Cooper.
35. Oscar Ward leaves his grace to Mae Linsig.
36. Lorena Raymond leaves a few pounds of weight to Mr. Thorpe.
37. Kenneth Miller leaves this annual.
38. Paul Rochette leaves his lack of height to Mr. Lewis.
39. James Richardson leaves his orations to compete with Cicero.
40. Johnnie Wharton leaves his business ability to Bill Hudgins.
41. Daniel Williams leaves his "hot air" to aid George in heating the school.
42. Bridie Mae Cox leaves her femininity to Florence Lee.
43. Mattie Mae Topping leaves her schoolgirl complexion to Allan Thomas.
44. Elizabeth Rountree leaves her love to "Sammy" Ruff.
45. Janet Cunningham leaves her dancing ability to John Holliday.
46. William Rothenburg leaves his drawing ability to Irving Goldstein.
47. Dorothy Colvin leaves her poetical ability to inspire the students.
48. Melvin Gauley and Gordon Routten leave at last.
49. Kenneth Wray leaves to write a letter to Vermont.
50. Lucille Mason leaves Mary Milliken.
51. Richard Ruth and Helen Cooney leave together.
52. Colburn Hamilton leaves the halls of H. H. S.
53. Betty Thompson leaves her dramatic ability as a pleasing memory.
54. The other members of the class leave their good will in this, the last will and testament of the Class of 1933.

Drawn up at Hampton, Virginia, on this, the eighteenth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three.

Signed:

SUZANNE DOANE,
Executor.

Class Prophecy

WHILE waiting in New York for the Leviathan to sail I spent a good deal of time wandering aimlessly about looking in shop windows. One day I came to a small fortune-telling establishment which immediately attracted my attention. A sign over the door announced the presence within of Macouitch Curtiski-Reader of the Crystal Globe. Something about that name? Macquitich Curtiski? Mac Curtis? Could it be? I had to know, so I entered. Seated at a table, well disguised by a heavy black beard and an oily mustache, was Mac Curtis! On the table in front of him a large crystal globe had been placed. Mac recognized me, though the years have changed me cruelly, and we soon drifted into conversation concerning mutual friends and acquaintances. In a few minutes Mac suggested that it might be interesting to know what had happened to the different members of our class. I agreed.

So he stood up, fixed the globe with a penetrating gaze and began to mutter strange words meanwhile gesturing excitedly.

In the globe there gradually appeared the Broadcasting studios of Station WEAF. At the mike stood a figure faintly reminiscent of Kate Smith but was it? No—it was Jane Sunderland. This is what she was saying: "1-2-3-4-Kick, 1-2-3-4-left hand on right foot, 1-2-3-4-etc. And now, ladies of the radio audience, if you will repeat these exercises every morning, I can absolutely guarantee that you will lose ten pounds in two weeks. So goodby 'till tomorrow".

Then the announcer stepped up and I realized that it was Bill Stultz. He began to speak. "Ladies and Gentlemen, before you hear James Richardson and his Hampton Maniacs I have a few announcements to make. At 4:00 o'clock this afternoon you will hear Miss Dorothy Colvin whose most famous poem "Shadows" has surpassed Joyce Kilmer's "Trees" in popular appeal. Miss Colvin will read a few of her more recent works. At 6:00 o'clock you will hear the second of a series of talks on Matrimony by Miss Ave Burke and at 7:00 a talk on divorce by Mrs. Julia Lee Pinkerton. Mrs. Pinkerton is better acquainted with divorce than most of us, having recently put aside her fifth husband. Tomorrow evening at 6:45 Miss Suzanna Doane will tell the children a bed-time story.

"Now, to hear James Richardson and his Hampton Maniacs. The Maniacs are Jimmie Sheehan, accordian; Elaine Winner, piano; Helen Bona, violin; James Payne, tuba; Victor Tyler, piccolo; Lloyd Wallace, flute; Melvin Carmel, saxaphone."

Then the scene changed to the outer office of the Carmines Cosmetic Company located on the twentieth floor of the Empire State Building. The office was filled with secretaries. I saw Lillian Newman, Peggy Doane, Lorena Raymond, Ruth Lewis, Ida Carmel, Esther Fuller and Helen Cooper. A young man rushed in and took his place at the desk marked "Secretary to the President". It was Norwood Evans. He had as secretary, Vige Monta. The outside door opened and in came Lucy Page Jones. "I want to see my husband." She was shown into the office of President Carmines.

This vision slowly vanished and the vision of a newspaper took its place. The paper was the Hampton Daily News and in the lower right-hand corner were the names of its staff:

Kenneth Miller, Editor-in-Chief; George Gunn, Associate Editor; Eleanor Crandol, Society Editor; Roger Lucy, Business Manager; Henrietta Hoover, Rachel Nelson, Liz Rountree, Reporters.

Then the pages of the paper fell open and certain news items were especially interesting.

OPENING OF THE WHARTON THEATRE TODAY

Mr. John Wharton has announced that his new theatre will open tonight at 8 o'clock. He also said that in the near future he will have the pleasure of presenting, among other things, that famous Dramatic Trio—Clove, Powers, Thompson—in the latest production "Lulu". He said too, that on March 5th there will be a personal appearance by Miss Gaille Josselynne. Miss Josselynne who is formerly of Hampton is one of Hollywood's most promising actresses.

The Monthly Meeting of the 4-H Club will be held at the home of Miss Elizabeth Allen, president on February 25th.

Mrs. R. C. Lee and children, William H. and Bob, of Winchester are visiting Mrs. Lee's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Bradford on Linden Avenue.

Mr. Richard Ruth, of Phoebeus has left for Richmond where he has accepted a position. He will be followed shortly by Mrs. Ruth who was before her marriage Miss Helen Cooney also of Phoebeus.

THE KRABBA

The Monthly Meeting of the Hampton High School Patrons League will be held in the High School Auditorium on Wednesday. There will be several interesting talks: Loyalty to School and Community—Frederick Frasch. Your Child and Athletics—Judson Ellis. Combining of County Schools—Earl Sealey.

Faculty of Hampton High School will present a play on Friday night. Those members taking part are: Marion Hinman, Math. Instructor; John Burton, Physics Instructor; Rosa Lee Boggs, French Instructor; Richard Skofield, Chemistry Instructor; Marie Moore, Math. Instructor; Mattie Mae Topping, Commercial Instructor; A. B. Conner, Instructor of Athletics. The play gives promise of being very entertaining as practically all of the players have had some dramatic experience.

The Messrs. Harry Selden, Archie Sinclair, Wythe Sinclair, James Sinclair and Cecil Sinclair have left for Richmond where they will attend a meeting of the State Dairyman's Association.

Then there appeared the interior of the Bank of Hampton. At the President's desk I saw Gordon Routten and awaiting his commands were his three secretaries Lucille Johnson, Lucille Freeman, and Virginia Goodrich. I saw also Bank examiner, Jack Powell, prowling around looking for trouble. As I looked, the door opened and two gold hoarders slunk in with huge bags containing thousands of dollars. I realized soon that they were Paul Hancock and Martel Epstein turning in their gold.

Then I was given a glance at the inside of the Buxton Hospital. In the children's ward I saw Deane Crawford and Martha Sisson and in the white uniform of the graduate nurse, Dorothy Gustafson, Louise Wynne, Elizabeth Moore, Minnie Cunningham and Mary Pickin. Dr. Oscar Ward was ambling cheerfully about making calls.

The next was a scene in Judge Richard Bentzel's courtroom. Lucille Owens and Elizabeth Maddox were attorneys for the defense and the Prosecuting Attorney, Paul Rochette. Familiar faces in the jury box were John Green, French Shortridge, Raymond Andrews, Nelson Howe and Adelle Chandler. Two policemen, Harry Ferber and William Edwards stood by the door. Judge Bentzel tapped for silence and stated that the following were the cases on the docket for the day: Jessie Cross, Seymour Saunders, Exceeding the Speed Limits; Myron Shafer, Disorderly Conduct; Elliott Bloxom, Evasion of Income Tax; Ann Masters, Elizabeth Beasley, Transporting Liquor. This charge having been brought by those conscientious members of the W. C. T. U., Anna Lee Gordon, Charlotte Elliott, and Bridie May Cox. Janet Cunningham, Melvin Gauley, proprietors of the Pink Elephant Studio of Dancing, Operating without a license.

Then the courtroom scene faded and the luxurious estate of Roxie Moore and his wife, the former Ann Hinman took its place. Back of the house were stables containing many thoroughbred race horses well taken care of by Leland Thornton, their trainer. As we looked into the open doorway of the dwelling we had a glimpse of the rich interiors decorated by Georgia Copeland and of the well-stocked library catalogued by Doreas Gilliam and Julia Bader. Then Ann emerged, shopping-bound. She stepped into her waiting autogyro and spun away. Her first stop was at Stafford Wooten's Long Last Shoe Parlor where she ordered six pairs of dainty pumps in the latest shades. She crossed the street to the Weston and Wilson Grocery Co. where Joseph, Grover and Shepherd greeted their best customer effusively. Ann stopped to order a bunch of asparagus from Virginia Cathell at the green vegetable counter. As she departed her autogyro struck a small puppy whose agonized yelps brought running those ardent founders of the local chapter of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, Ellen Smith, Louise Wiatt, Lucille Mason, Elsie Evans and Ann Wilson.

As the scene faded a shrieking boat whistle reminded me that I must hasten for the Dock from which my ship was soon to sail for France. Hastily bidding Mac good-bye I rushed to the pier.

Getting on board at the last minute, I had had no time to look about me. Later, however, comfortably seated in my deck chair, imagine my delight in seeing Elizabeth Schumacher famous dress designer, Paris bound. While we were talking Mary Burdick, richly jeweled and furred, approached chatting gaily with her brilliant young husband Major William Hunt recently appointed Military Attaché to the American Embassy at Paris. Presently tea was served by the Deck Steward, Allston House. Soon we were joined by Col. William Rothenburg on his way to his recently assigned post in China. Two dashing ship officers then stepped up who proved to our delight to be Dan Williams and Archer Jones.

In my stateroom that night I marvelled at the fate which has brought me in such close touch with every member of my class in the past few hours.

Solitude

*A solitary place is often found
By running rivers, pools, and waterfalls.
To places such as these the human crawls
To rest his weary head upon the ground.
Alas, those painful memories still surround
His aching heart, and everything recalls
His sorrow which he can't dispel by walls
Of solitude, they being too profound.*

*The thinker does not need a solitude;
His mind creates for him alone, a space
Of vast expanse where he may, at will, seclude
Himself from all his fellow men, in case
They bore him with their gross ingratitude.
Thus, solitude is a rest from life's mad chase.*

The Arista is the honor club of Hampton High School. It was organized in the fall of 1932 to encourage standards of scholarship. The above group constitutes the Alpha Chapter of the Arista. In order to be enrolled in a chapter the student must attain honor grades in three-fourths of monthly grades and three-fourths general averages. A new chapter will be formed after June finals and at the end of each succeeding term.

THE KRAMBA

Football Summary, 1932

HAMPTON, 6—MORRISON, 0

In the first game of the season, Hampton, using many substitutions, downed Morrison High School 6-0. The touchdown came as the result of two successive passes near the end of the second quarter, the first from Fuller to Curtis, the second from Curtis to Raymond Lewis who made the score. Morrison had a fighting team, but it was too light.

HAMPTON, 12—BOTETOURT, 0

The Crabbers playing on the J. S. Darling Memorial Park again, overwhelmed Botetourt High School team while using only second and third men. The first team was not even in uniform. A. B. Connor made both touchdowns in the second quarter.

HAMPTON, 19—McGUIRE, 0

Hampton traveled to Richmond and, clicking decisively, trounced McGuire Academy's plucky team 19-0. With machine-like precision, the Crabbers rolled up five touchdowns only to have two of them called back because of infractions of the rules. This engagement, which was marked by teamwork, was the first game with McGuire for many years.

HAMPTON, 12—SOUTH NORFOLK, 0

Out-played, out-classed, out-generalized, the South Norfolk Tigers went down to defeat before the furious onslaught of the Mettsmen. Jack Fuller, veteran fullback, crashed over for a touchdown in both first and third periods but Tatem, South Norfolk's star, was the outstanding player of the day. In this manner, the Crabbers continued their victory march.

HAMPTON, 0—MAURY, 6

After a boat had been chartered, Hampton's student body crossed the bay and saw their team, previously unscored on, force a strong team to its limit. Hudgins of Maury, made the only tally of the afternoon in the closing moments of the game. Although this game was lost, the team should be commended for their splendid showing against such a team.

THE KRABBA

HAMPTON, 0—HOPEWELL, 6

The Hopewell High School's football team got its revenge for the 6-0 defeat that Hampton gave it last year by coming through over an off-form team from Crabtown. Hampton, the odds on favorite, seemed to be dazed.

HAMPTON, 12—NEWPORT NEWS, 6

Long trod on Hampton reared its head and cast off the yoke of suppression worn since the last victory over Newport News fifteen years before. School spirit hit new heights under the exhortations of the squad of cheerleaders. Pep rallies were numerous and on the preceeding day, one hundred students broadcast the school cheers over station W. G. H.

Saturday dawned and a capacity crowd of 5,500 braved the cold wind and made standing room scarce. Newport News kicked off and Hampton marched down the field for a touchdown in the first three minutes of play. Fuller carried the ball across but failed to make good the place kick. After the ball was put in play it seesawed back and forth until Carpenter, bringing the crowd to its feet, rounded left end for 38 yards and a touchdown. Again Jack Fuller's kick failed and the half ended 12-0 Hampton.

The second half began with each team playing hard ball but with neither team getting within striking distance. However, the Mighty Typhoon started using the shuttle pass, with deadly effect during the last half and in the last period reached our seven yard line, where the Mettsmen took the ball on downs. Late in the same period Turpin caught a pass and made a touchdown for the shipbuilders.

Newport News made seven first downs to Hampton's six and completed 14 passes out of 21 thrown, to Hampton's none out of one tried, but Hampton pulled where it counted.

HAMPTON, 0—LANE, 7

A heart-breaking defeat was given Hampton by Lane High of Charlottesville. Hampton, on the four yard line was robbed of a touchdown by the final gun. Taylor made Lane's touchdown during the third quarter. The game, an even one, was the muddiest one that has been seen here for several years.

HAMPTON, 7—THOMAS JEFFERSON, 6

In the first Thanksgiving day game for years, the Red and White trounced Thomas Jefferson High of Richmond 7-6, as a fitting end to a successful season. Joe Carpenter made Hampton's touchdown in the second quarter while Jacobs scored Richmond's in the last period after Garber had made a forty yard run.

Jokes

"And what?", asked the Chief of the Cannibal Island, in his kindest tone, "was your business before you were captured by my men?"

"I was a newspaper man", answered George C. Gunn meekly.

"An editor?"

"No, merely a sub-editor."

"Cheer up, young man, after dinner you shall be editor-in-chief."

Marguerite Bradford: "Mary, when you wait at the table tonight for my guests, don't wear any jewelry."

Maid: "I have nothing valuable, Miss, but I thank you for the warning."

John Burton: "Pardon me, does this street car stop at Tenth Street?"

Daisy McMenamin: "Yes, watch me and get off one stop before I do."

John: "Thank you very much."

Book Canvasser (to Miss Henderson): "And lastly, all our cookery books contain a complete and up-to-date railway timetable."

George Chisman (Five years later): "My mother will be surprised when she gets my letter. 'George,' she used to say, 'You are so stupid that you will never get a job', and in the last month I have had six!"

"Girls when they went out to swim
Once dressed like Mother Hubbard;
Now they have a different whim;
They dress more like her cupboard."

Julia Lee on seeing sawdust plentifully sprinkled on the floor of a meat store remarked to her mother:

"Mummy, the man must have broken a lot of dolls."

Depression Couldn't Touch Them
"Eve never fretted
O'er how she was dressed,
And Adam never had to have
His trousers pressed."

Mae Curtis: "Yes, my friends, usually my audiences are glued to their seats."

Fay Carmines: "What a quaint way of keeping them there!"

Waiter: "These are the best eggs we have had for years."

Dick Cloke: "Well, bring me some you haven't had for so long."

John Wharton: "When do you graduate?"

Roxie Moore: "End of this quarter."

John: "Surprised?"

Roxie: "No, I've been expecting it for a number of years."

Norwood: "I'm sorry, but I haven't any money to pay for that meal."

Mr. Mann: "That's all right. We'll write your name on the wall and you can pay the next time you come in."

Norwood: "Don't do that! Everybody who comes in will see it."

Mr. Mann: "Oh, no they won't. Your overcoat will be hanging over it."

Marie Moore: "Is Jessie Cross a typical Scotchman?"

Daisy: "Is she? She has saved all her toys for her second childhood."

Harry Stultz: "You will soon forget her and be happy again."

Judson Ellis: "Oh, no I shan't. I've bought too much for her on the installment plan."

Bob Stout: "We're having a three piece orchestra for the M. B. Club dance."

Elaine Winner (very puzzled): "Three piece?"

Bob: "Yes, piano, player, and bench."

Ossie Ward (Applying for position of office boy): "I may say I'm pretty smart. I've been winning several prizes in crossword and word picture competitions lately."

Prospective Employer: "Yes, but I want someone who can be smart during office hours."

Ossie: "This was during office hours."

Mary Burdick: "I left my last place because I was told to do something I didn't like."

Prospective Boss: "Really! What was that?"

Mary: "Look for another job."

Dick Cloke: "I've got a new idea with a fortune in it."

Myron Shafer: "What now?"

Dick: "It's an alarm clock that emits the delicious odors of frying bacon and fragrant coffee."

Richard Bentzel: "What's dignity?"

Bob Stout: "Dignity, my friend, is what you think you have until Mr. Thorne says 'What is the meaning of this?'"

"No, your honor," said Gordon Routten, "I was certainly not drunk though I may have been intoxicated."

"Well," said the magistrate, "I intended to fine you two dollars and fifty cents, but in view of your explanation, I make it five."

ADVERTISEMENTS

VIRGINIA'S LEADING ANNUAL ENGRAVERS

THIS BOOK

Will be treasured by you as a record of the golden days of youth; of events large and small that will be thus recalled in later years and always with delight; of friendships that will remain forever green.

It will be the magic door through which you need only to pass; to step from age into youth! To us whose privilege it was to have a large and pleasant part in its making, this book will always be a reminder of the many friendships that grew and multiplied in this building.

And so we extend to the Class our heartiest congratulations and to those of you whom we came to know best, Adios! Hasta la vista!

AN ORGANIZATION OF SKILLED CRAFTSMEN,
DESIGNERS, ARTISTS AND PHOTO-ENGRAVERS
RENDERING SUPERIOR PHOTO ENGRAVING SERVICE
DESIGNERS AND ENGRAVERS OF THE KRABBA

The practical side of Annual management, including advertising, selling, organization, and finance, is comprehensively covered in a series of Editorial and Business Management books called "New Craft," furnished free to Annual Executives. Secure "New" co-operation. We invite your correspondence.
